At the Thirty-eighth Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 1, 1838—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE CLERICAL SECRETARY—

On a Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by M. Merle D'Aubigné,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an abstract has been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee.

On a Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Ripon, seconded by the Rev. John W. Cunningham,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while this Meeting notices, with mingled feelings of gratitude and deep responsibility, the large augmentation of the Society's income, and regards it as a token of an increasing Missionary Spirit in the Church of England, it is anxious to witness yet further manifestations of this spirit, in the offers of Clergymen, and other persons of superior education, as candidates for the high and holy office of a Missionary.

On a Motion of the Most Hon. the Marquess of Cholmondeley, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, while affectionately deploring the early removal of that long-tried friend of India, Bishop Corrie, from his Episcopal labours, would unite, at the same time, in thanksgivings to the Great Head of the Church, for the completion of the Episcopate in three Presidencies of India; whereby it is encouraged to hope, that, under the influences of the Divine Spirit, the Missionary Work will be fostered, and the wants of India be gradually supplied by efficient Native Ministers of the Gospel.

On a Motion of George Finch, Esq., seconded by the Rev. Hugh Stowell,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, viewing the circumstances of New Zealand, where, notwithstanding many peculiar difficulties, the Missionary Labourers have, by the singular blessing of God, succeeded in rearing an Infant Church of Christ in the midst of the wild and fierce inhabitants of that Island; the Meeting anticipates, from the visit of the Lord Bishop of Australia, the extension and consolidation of the Mission: and records its earnest prayer, that, whatever measures may be in contemplation for that country, they may be directed to the promotion of its best civil and religious interests, as an independent, free, and Christian Nation.

On a Motion by Assaad Yacoub el Kehaya, from Syria, seconded by the Rev. Samuel Gobat, Missionary from Abyssinia,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Francis Goode, for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to the Right Hon. the President; to the Vice-Patrons and Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends, who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection. VICE-PATRONS shall be appointed exclusively from among the Peers, Spiritual and Temporal. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upwards per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upwards, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upwards shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often; and at such places as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued:——The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which, special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made, to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

CHRISTIANS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

PREACHED AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH,

FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 30, 1838,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society.

BY THE

REV. FRANCIS GOODE, M.A.

MORNING PREACHER AT THE FEMALE ORPHAN ASYLUM,

AND LECTURER OF CLAPHAM:

LATE FELLOW OF TRINITY COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE.

CHRISTIANS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

MATTHEW V. 14.

YE ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

WONDERFUL are the exalted titles, the names of honour and of glory, with which the Lord has been pleased to dignify redeemed sinners. In their persons, they are set forth as the temple of the living God: (2 Cor. vi. 16.) For their services, they are a royal priesthood: (1 Pet. ii. 9.) In their relation to Himself, they are Sons of God: (1 John iii. 1.) They are the body of Christ; (1 Cor. xii. 27.) the spouse (Song v. 1.) of Christ; the fulness of Him that filleth all in all! (Eph. i. 23.) So, as regards a world of the ungodly, in whose company they dwell, they are beautifully likened, for inoffensiveness, purity, and loveliness, to a lily among thorns: (Song ii. 2.) and for their INFLUENCE on that world, Ye (saith Christ) are the salt of the earth: and, again, in my text, Ye are the light of the world.

In this latter most important character, Christian brethren, I am to exhibit to you the disciples of Jesus, this evening. May the Lord strengthen the weakness of His ministering servant, and enable me to set before you the unspeakable privilege, and, with it, the overwhelming obligation to Missionary exertion, that is involved in this exalted name. Amidst much personal infirmity, I desire to direct you to that great Master of assemblies, in whose name we are come up to worship. May the Lord speak to the hearts of His people, and command His blessing!

Before I proceed to my subject, I cannot forbear to notice, that the Church Missionary Society has a claim, upon the individual who addresses you, of no common kind. It is one which is associated with the most endeared recollections of my early life. My late honoured Father was one of its first founders. The infant Society was cradled in his house. There, as I well remember, its meetings were for many years held; its plans matured; its first Missionaries appointed. He not only laboured for it, while life continued, but (I may say) died in its service, by a disease contracted while travelling for the furtherance of its objects: and thus, independently of its INTRINSIC excellence, he has bequeathed it to the affections of his children, in a way that may well excuse a forwardness of zeal, on its behalf.

I might plead (if plea were necessary) a still further reason for addressing you, in personal acquaintance, in some little measure, with heathen India. I may speak to you, as an eye-witness of the wretchedness, and abominable idolatries, of that land of darkness. Yes, my brethren, and most gladly, had it so pleased God, would I have been STILL fulfilling my ministry, in that interesting sphere. I confess, it is a privilege of which an angel is not worthy, to minister for Christ in ANY place, and under ANY circumstances. I confess, the nominal Christian needs, equally with the heathen, the blessed ministry of the gospel. But HERE, as you well know, the light is in abundance: THERE it is scanty, and scattered; so that the feeblest ray of it is precious. HERE are plenty, who are willing to give themselves to the Lord: THITHER but few, comparatively, have a heart to go, for His name. HERE are they, who MAY know, who MAY come to the light, if they WILL: THERE are perishing millions, perishing because they CANNOT know: sheep having no shepherd; with no man caring for their souls. O that our Christian youth, training for the ministry, would think of these things! that when God is asking, by providential openings on every hand, Whom shall I send?

and who will go for us? one and another, whom He has blessed with talents, and acquirements, suited to this holy service, may say, Here am I: send me. (Isaiah vi. 8.)

Without detaining you with any further preliminary remarks, let me, at once, request your attention to the words before us. They have nothing in them of novelty. They promise nothing to curiosity; but, withal, they are EXPRESSIVE words: they are STARTLING words. They speak to you, Christians, of a privilege exclusively your own; and a privilege that draws along with it such a weight of obligation, as an angel's tongue might labour adequately to describe. Ye are the light of the world. O Christians! believe your character, and let your blessed shining constrain OTHERS to believe it, too.

In speaking upon these words, I may,

I. VINDICATE THE TRUTH HERE ASSERTED.
II. APPLY IT TO THE CASE BEFORE US.

I. Vindicate the truth asserted.

The position in my text is a startling one, is an offensive one, to the men of this world. They pride themselves on powers of intellect, on sublime discoveries, and refinements, in art and science; and by these they look for a progressive advancement of the human family, without any limit, in civilization and moral excellence. Now, in opposition to all such dreamings of vain men, wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight, (Isaiah v. 21.) my text instructs us, that,

1. THE WORLD (that is, the moral condition of men in it) IS DARKNESS.
2. CHRISTIANS, AND CHRISTIANS ONLY, ARE THE LIGHT OF IT.

1. The world are, in themselves, darkness. This is clearly to be gathered from the text. For, observe, it is not said here, Ye are ENLIGHTENED PERSONS in the world; or, simply, Ye are ENLIGHTENERS of the world;—which they might be, along with others, the wise, and learned, in their generation;—but, absolutely, and in the abstract, Ye are THE LIGHT of the world; so that, WITHOUT them, there is NONE. Take away the followers of Jesus from the earth, and there is NO RAY LEFT in it, of saving, cheering, sanctifying light. Light there is much, as respects WORLDLY science, and arts, and accomplishments. Men may be poets, and philosophers, and orators, without Christianity; though, even in these things, the sweet singer of Israel, and the seraphic Isaiah, and the profound and eloquent Paul, surpass them all:—Men may legislate with Solon: they may count the stars with Hipparchus, and register their wanderings: with Jubal and his brethren, the seed of Cain, they may invent all that can increase the security, and swell the comforts, and minister to the pleasures, of social life:—all this men may do, without the gospel. Nay, more than this. From the remains of the law of creation written in their hearts, from the reason of things, and the mere dictates of self-interest, aided by tradition from their fathers, men may even construct an imperfect system of morals. But put this (wherein they come nearest to the light we are now considering) at its utmost value: add to it whatever may be obtained unconsciously, or borrowed without acknowledgment, (and it is not a little) from divine revelation: and, however such theories may (as Luther expresses it) produce Fabriciuses, and Reguluses, they leave men in darkness still, as to all that man is principally concerned to know.

Three things are included, in Scripture, under the term "LIGHT,"—knowledge, purity, and gladness: and I need occupy little of your time to prove, that, of all these, men who possess not the gospel, or who disregard it if they have it, are utterly destitute. Without denying that the heathen, that all natural men, have SOME knowledge of God, or, rather, that they have a knowledge OF SOME THINGS respecting God, we may, yet, safely assert, with an apostle, They know Him not. (1 Thess. iv. 5.) They glorify Him not, as God. (Rom. i. 21.) Hear, for instance, an historian, charging the Deity with being jealous of human happiness:—Witness their poets, depicting their gods in colours of deceit, and violence, and uncleanness, so that it was truly said by Lucian, that there was no iniquity so great, but he could quote the gods themselves, as its perpetrators:—Hear their philosophers, some of them controlling the Deity by fate: others of them altogether denying His providential interposition: and the greatest of them, (who seemed to have the clearest views of his unity and other attributes, and to be the furthest removed from the grossness of the popular belief,) directing, with his dying lips, the sacrifice of a cock to Æsculapius:—Surely, we need go no further to justify the assertion, The world by wisdom knew not God. (1 Cor. i. 21.) They became vain in their imagination, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools. (Rom. i. 21, 22.) It may be, they had some conceptions of God, that were worthy of Him; but they knew not HIS MORAL CHARACTER: they saw not His glory: they were without God in the world. (Eph. ii. 12.) And, with this ABSENCE of TRUE notions of God, and the PRESENCE of many FALSE notions, were associated all impurity, and viciousness of living; all gloom, and doubt, and anxiety, as to the future.

Read the description given of the heathen world in the apostle's day, Romans i. 23—32: Who changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own heart, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever, Amen. . . . . And, even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient: being FILLED with ALL unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness: full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity: whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents: without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only DO the same, but HAVE PLEASURE in them that do them.

Such was paganism in the apostle's days, when Socrates, and Plato, and Aristotle, and all the sages of antiquity, had lived and died, and left the world in the darkness in which they found it. So far were they from being the light of the world, that themselves lost their way: themselves were immersed in all the moral wretchedness of their brethren: for, observe, it is of these very men, who professed themselves to be wise, that the apostle speaks. Their writings are an extraordinary compound of acuteness and puerilities, with nothing certain, no sure resting-place for the soul. None of them could direct a sinner, how he might please God; how to atone for sin; how he might find peace for a guilty conscience. The way of peace have they not known. (Rom. iii. 17.) Not only was their theory of virtue unsound, but even, wherein correct, it was POWERLESS. They could supply NO MOTIVES, that should stem the impetuous torrent of human appetites and passions. They could MOCK at human vices and follies, but they could not CURE them. They could SHOW a better way; but they neither kept it themselves, nor could restore others to it, who were wandering. And what paganism WAS, that paganism IS. The heathen, with correct notions of some particular attributes, know not God; and what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. (Jude v. 10.) Still that is true of them, which Paul writes, They walk in the vanity of their minds, having the understanding DARKENED; being alienated from the life of God through the IGNORANCE that is in them, because of the BLINDNESS of their hearts: (Ephes. iv. 17, 18.) an extraordinary accumulation of terms, all expressive of that deep night of moral shame and misery which broods over the heathen world.

My brethren, do you ask, why I dwell upon these things, when they are so readily acknowledged, by all who hear me? Because, while I know they are readily admitted, I also know, they are not FELT. The vivid reality is not painfully before us, to move our affections, to engage our sympathies, and call forth all our energies on behalf of perishing millions of human beings. It is not sufficiently considered that ignorance of God is another name for vice, and vice is misery: and this threefold night of ignorance, pollution, and wretchedness, still enwraps by far the greater portion of the habitable globe. Paganism, Mohammedism, Judaism, and a spurious Christianity little better, sway the myriads of the human family; and, with one or other of these delusions, men are going daily to the generation of their fathers, and never see light: (Ps. xlix. 19.) sensual, malignant, tormenting and tormented, in time: without Christ, and having no hope, (Ephes. ii. 12.) as respects eternity. Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood. Destruction and misery are in their ways, and the way of peace have they not known. There is no fear of GOD before their eyes. (Rom. iii. 14—18.)

O Christians! this is darkness: not the darkness of ONE nation, or of TWO; but the darkness of every heart, and of every clime, where Jesus' name, Jesus' power, are unknown. Once, YE were thus darkness; but now are ye light in the Lord. And, O consider! ye are MORE than this. As ye are light IN the Lord, so ye are light FOR the Lord. I am to speak of a CONTRAST to the gloom, an ANTAGONIST to this moral darkness of the earth. Note,

2. There is a light in the darkness, and Christians are that light. Ye are the light of the world.

The persons here addressed are the company of the disciples, in general. But the words have a SPECIAL application, in the first instance, to the twelve; whom it appears, from St. Luke's account, our Lord had just been choosing, and had named apostles. (Luke vi. 13.) THEY were, in an EMINENT degree, the light of the world. By their labours in the word and doctrine, it was, presently, to beam on every land; and, by their inspired writings, it was to abide with the Church, in all its purity and brightness, to the end of time. By them the Sun of righteousness darted His first rays upon a world of darkness. In them He was as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoicing as a strong man to run a race. His goings forth were unto the end of the heaven, and His circuit unto the ends of it, and there was nothing hid from the heat thereof. (Ps. xix. 5, 6.) Marvellous, and unexampled, was the rapidity, with which that heavenly light of the gospel, carried by the simple doctrine of a few unlettered men, flew, throughout the civilized world. Wherever it came, there it kindled ; thence it propagated itself. No force, no fury, of men or devils, could thenceforth extinguish it: nothing but the corruptions of those who should have cherished it. Miracles they wrought indeed, and miracles flashed dismay into the hosts of darkness; but they converted not souls, by these. They owed their triumphs to no feats, either of eloquence or of arms: they flattered no pride: they courted not the great or the learned of this world: they offered, with their doctrine, nothing but shame, and suffering, and loss of all things. They made no compromise with the surrounding darkness; but steadily attacked it, and revealed its character, by the simple contrast of their own blessed shining.

Ye are the light of the world. O how has God for ever stained, herein, the pride of all human glory! how has He poured contempt upon man's fancied sufficiency, who dreams of being a light unto himself, and would mend the vices of men, and dispel the gloom of men, without revelation! who brings his boasted schemes of education, and systems of morals, that leave out the foundation, and keystone of morals,—the love of Christ. I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. (Matt. xi. 25, 26.) My brethren, had any, when these words were uttered, set out on the search for wisdom among the nations of the earth, how little would they have thought of finding it, where it really was. The heathen was ready, with his systems of philosophy; and these promised great things for the moral renovation of the species. The Scribe and Pharisee were at hand, with their Mosaic institutions; and these had, indeed, a form of knowledge, and of the truth, in the law. (Rom. ii. 20.) But none of these were of any value for the dispersion of the world's gloom. From all of them Jesus turns to the few unlettered and lowly followers that were about him, and says TO THEM, YE are the light of the world.

But this witness is not to be confined to apostles EXCLUSIVELY, or to those who have followed them, in their ordinary functions. We are told by St. Luke, that it was addressed to the disciples, GENERALLY:—the company, of whom the twelve, just chosen, were a distinguished part. So St. Paul addresses the WHOLE BODY of Ephesian Christians. Now are ye light in the Lord. (Ephes. v. 8.) Nor did they only POSSESS light, but were luminaries, to SHED light on an erring world. Sons of God without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world, HOLDING FORTH THE WORD OF LIFE. (Phil. ii. 15, 16.) It is a remarkable fact, which well deserves our notice, in these days of extravagant pretension, that the very first Missionaries to the world at large (on the persecution that arose about Stephen) were such as, from the circumstances of the case, COULD have had no special commission for the purpose; but were thrust forth of God, PROMISCUOUSLY, into the harvest. THEY THAT WERE SCATTERED abroad went every where, PREACHING THE WORD. (Acts viii. 4.) And did the Lord RECOGNISE their labours?

And THE HAND OF THE LORD WAS WITH THEM, and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. (Acts xi. 21.) Thus, then, we see, that this title is descriptive, not of apostles, exclusively, or of their humbler followers in the ministry, in after-ages: but this honour have ALL His saints. (Ps. cxlix. 9.) Ye are the light of the world.

Here, then, an inquiry presents itself, of vital importance, and deepest interest. What is that exclusive possession of the followers of Jesus, which thus constitutes them, absolutely, and emphatically, what none are beside them,—the light of the world? And to this I answer, in one word, CHRIST. Believers are the light of the world, (1) as, in their own souls, they POSSESS Christ; (2) as, in their life and labours among men, they EXHIBIT Christ.

(1) In their own souls, they POSSESS Christ. With this, all light begins, in the human soul. If believers are light, they are so, IN THE LORD. It is in HIS light they see light. (Ps. xxxvi. 9.) My brethren, this is matter of experience. O how deep is that night of spiritual ignorance and misery, which shrouds the minds of natural men, as to the things of God! They may, indeed, speak of sin and depravity: of the Father's grace, of the Son's love, of the Spirit's influences. These, it is possible, through education, and frequent hearing, may be words upon the lips, notions in the understanding. But the man speaks of them (if at all) as a blind man of colours. Sin is not felt, nor is self renounced, and Christ embraced, as the sole, sufficient hope of a dying sinner. Generally speaking, men even know not what these things MEAN. Danger they feel not. Help they want not. Fears, or desires, of a spiritual kind, they have none. They are Christian men. They were baptized in infancy. They have been brought up in an orthodox creed; and, with the same infirmity as others, they yet hope, that the mercy of Christ will avail to save them, in this condition.

But, let the spirit of Jesus once shine into the heart, all this grossness of spiritual delusion is dispelled, and gone, for ever. The man is called out of darkness into His marvellous light. (1 Pet. ii. 9.) O what a new day, of holiness and blessedness, breaks in upon that soul in which Jesus has been revealed, through the Spirit! True, there is a discovery made of sin, such as never was before: but, withal, there is a discovery of SIN'S REMOVAL, through the blood of sprinkling: so that his VERY SORROW has JOY in it: his repentance is UNTO SALVATION, not to be repented of. (2 Cor. vii. 10.) True, again, the light discovers him, to himself, utterly destitute of all personal righteousness, and of all means of producing it: but the same blessed light reveals to him a RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD; the divine righteousness of Christ; so made the believer's OWN, by faith, that himself is made the righteousness of God, in Christ. (2 Cor. v. 21.) This is the peculiar discovery of the gospel, which makes it altogether suitable to a poor, fallen sinner. I am not ashamed (saith St. Paul) of the gospel of Christ: and why not? why (saith he) it is the power of God unto salvation; .... for therein is THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD revealed, from faith to faith. (Rom. i. 16, 17.) This gospel comes to the chief of sinners, hopeless, and helpless, and hating God as an enemy;—and puts into his hands a free pardon: shows him God RIGHTEOUS, in its bestowal; only JUST, in being the JUSTIFIER of him that believeth in Jesus. (Rom. iii. 26.) It says to him, Believe and live. (Acts xvi. 31.) It deals with him as he is, (as of himself he MUST be,) ungodly. (Rom. iv. 5. and v. 6.) In this condition, it gives him life freely; for no change wrought in him, as the GROUND of its bestowal; but, by this sweetness of redeeming love, it wins the once rebel heart to love again; subdues it into willing captivity to the obedience of Christ.

O this, this is light: a light which nothing else can impart, in earth or heaven: a light, of which the most brilliant intellect of mere natural men has not a gleam!

But God, saith the apostle, and many of us I trust can say it, too, God hath revealed it unto us, by his Spirit. (1 Cor. ii. 10.) God grant, beloved, this may be YOUR testimony! that you may know what it is to possess Christ: not a Christ NAMED, and PRAISED, only: but a Christ LOVED: a PRECIOUS Christ: a Christ all sufficient for every want, and desire, of the human soul: a Christ IN YOU, the hope of glory. (Col. i. 27.) This is the sum of all philosophy, and of all divinity; to have this excellency of knowledge of Christ Jesus our Lord. (Phil. iii. 8.) All knowledge, WITHOUT this, is worthless; and all knowledge, WITH it, has a new, and indescribable sweetness; as it is an emanation from the Infinite Wisdom, whose delights are with the sons of men: (Prov. viii. 31.) who loved me, (saith the believer) and gave Himself for me: (Gal. ii. 20.)

But I am to speak rather of the followers of Jesus, not so much as they POSSESS light in themselves, but as they GIVE OUT light; as they are the SOLE DIFFUSERS of saving, sanctifying light, in a world of darkness. And this they are,

(2) As they EXHIBIT Christ: as they MAKE KNOWN Christ, in all their intercourse. And, here, I might speak of that PERSONAL exhibition of Christ, which is the privilege of every believer, in his immediate sphere. His path is as the shining light, which shineth, more and more, unto the perfect day. (Prov. iv. 18.) In each of His people, Christ lives (as it were) again, among men. It is their glory to reflect His image, to put on the Lord Jesus Christ: (Rom. xiii. 14.) to be living epistles of Christ, known, and read, of all men. (2 Cor. iii. 2, 3.) But it is my duty, on this occasion, to speak of the disciples of Christ, as they are the HERALDS of Christ, to a lost world: as they have a commission from Him, like that given to His apostle, to open men's eyes; to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. (Acts xxvi. 18.) And I assert a truth, to which, I am sure, you will readily respond, when I say, that the followers of Jesus are, thus, the light of the world, simply, as Christ, crucified for sinners, is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and end, of all their ministrations: as they determine not to know any thing, among men, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. (1 Cor. ii. 2.) Light, of THEMSELVES, they have NONE. They are sinners, by nature, in the very same condemnation with their brethren. But, they can tell them of mercy, abounding mercy, which themselves have received. They can show others, what great things the Lord hath done for them, and hath had compassion on them. (Mark v. 19.) They can witness, that the same Lord over all is RICH UNTO ALL that CALL upon Him: (Rom. x. 12.) and, while they bear a testimony against sin, by the light of the law, which conscience will verify, in every breast, they can point to the Lamb of God which taketh away sin, (John i. 29.) by the sacrifice of Himself: by whom all that believe are justified from all things. (Acts xiii. 39.)

These weapons of their warfare are not, indeed, carnal. They are no way suited to corrupt reason. The natural man, looking upon the degradation of the human family, sees no want, but of intellectual refinement. Still he stumbles upon the miserable delusion,—which all experience, to say nothing of Scripture, contradicts,—that the moral elevation of the species is to be the result of higher cultivation, and mere mental enlargement. But, however civilization, and solid acquirement, have ever been, in a remarkable degree, the ACCOMPANIMENTS and HANDMAIDS of Christianity, these are not the remedy for man's moral misery. These will not heal a distempered soul. They are not the light of a lost world. Man wants a SAVIOUR: he wants an ATONEMENT: he wants RECONCILIATION to an offended God: FREE PARDON: the GIFT OF RIGHTEOUSNESS; of ETERNAL LIFE, without desert or price, which he has not to bring. Tell him of THESE, you tell him what exactly meets his case: you break his chain: you pour a flood of light upon his gloomy, spell-bound soul. The man leaps up, from his thraldom, into the liberty of the sons of God.

A new day has visited his soul: the day-spring from on high, guiding his soul into the way of peace. (Luke i. 78, 79.) These are the weapons of the gospel warfare: and, however despised by men, they are mighty, through God, to the pulling down of strong holds. (2 Cor. x. 4.)

Need I remind you, my brethren, of the experience of the Missionaries to Greenland? They went, and spake to the Greenlanders, of God, as awful, and holy; of the evil and misery of sin: they told them, (and they told them truly,) of the vengeance that must overtake transgressors: but all in vain. "All this we knew before," said they:—They gave no heed to them. But, at length, they preached Christ. They told them of pardon and peace through His blood: of love in God, that gave His Son to be a Saviour. This engaged their ear: this won upon their hearts. "We never heard such things till now," they said: and hearing they believed, and believing they lived. The moral wilderness rejoiced, and blossomed as the rose. (Isaiah xxxv. 1.) Listen, again, to the apostolic Brainerd. "Still" (he writes, in his journal) "this great awakening, this surprising concern, was never excited by any harangues of terror; but always appeared most remarkable, when I insisted on the compassions of a dying Saviour—on the plentiful provisions of the gospel, and the free offers of divine grace, to needy, distressed sinners."

Thus. you see, from the days of apostles to this day, the preaching of Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness, has ever been, to them who were called, the POWER of God, and the WISDOM of God. (1 Cor. i. 23, 24.) HE it is, who is given a light to the Gentiles, and to be God's salvation, unto the end of the earth. (Is. xlix. 6.) In Him, the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. (1 John ii. 8.) And His people are the light of the world, simply, as, having the love of Christ in their hearts, and the testimony of the grace they have themselves experienced, on their tongues, they go forth, and cease not, in every place, to teach and to preach Jesus Christ.

(Acts v. 42.) Yes, beloved, if you would at all illumine the darkness of this world, either at home or abroad, ever remember, Christ must first dwell in your own hearts by faith, (Eph. iii. 17.) and be manifested by your conduct; and the same Christ must be the subject of all your ministrations. Him you must exalt as a Saviour. Him you must commend to men's affections. He must be the motive to every duty that is inculcated; the end of every service; the centre to which all the rays of divine truth must be shown to tend, and in whom they meet, who is the sum of all their excellence, and glory.

Having thus endeavoured to VINDICATE the important truth here asserted, let me now pass on to

II. Apply it to the case before us.

And here I may consider the words, 1. In the way of PRIVILEGE; and 2. of OBLIGATION.

1. In the way of PRIVILEGE. Ye are the light of the world. What a name of glory is this, which is put upon the saints of Jesus! A world of benighted, erring men hangs upon THEM, for all the knowledge of Himself that God has given! THEY are the SOLE POSSESSORS of it! THEY must show men the only path that is to be found on earth, of real holiness and gladness. Here Philosophy must light her lamp, if she would have a glimmer of real wisdom. She must become a fool, that she may be wise, (1 Cor. iii. 18.) and sit at the feet of the disciples of Jesus, and hear His word at their mouth.

Ye are the light of the world. This was the very name of our God and Saviour, when he sojourned among us. I am the light of the world. (John ix. 5.) This is the glory of God Himself; of whom it is witnessed, God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. (1 John i. 5.) And the believer, walking himself in the light of the Lord, reflects his radiance on a rayless, cheerless world. The Church, as the representative of her Lord, the residence of God through the Spirit, is the world's spiritual Sun. In her, God has concentrated all the beams that shall ever be shed on the world; at least while Jesus is absent. His glory is seen upon her. His salvation is known in her. With her is everlasting light, and life, and peace, and joy: and it is the sweet privilege, the high calling, of her sons, to DISPENSE these, as themselves have experienced them, to the nations of the earth.

And here we arrive at a true estimate of the Missionary character and service. O that it may please God to stir up some that are before him, this evening, to engage in that blessed work! Then, indeed, we shall not have met here in vain. My brethren, Is it a MEAN thing (think you) to be a Missionary? to be the light of the world? to bring heaven, by the ministry of the gospel, to those who are in the precincts of hell? Is it an office of NO dignity? has it nothing, in it, worthy of sacrifice, or of suffering, for its fulfilment? Is there no scope for the exercise of superior attainments, or high endowments, that you should turn from it with disdain, and say, ANY ONE is good enough to be a Missionary? It is not strange, that the WORLD should judge so. THEY see nothing but the privations, and banishment, and deaths, to which the Missionary is exposed. They see nothing, even in his successes, but matter of scornful derision. They despised, and crucified, the great Missionary of Jehovah, the Apostle of our profession. (Heb. iii. 1.) But it IS strange, that the FOLLOWERS of Jesus should be like them: that THEY should renounce their godlike privilege: that the cry should be sent from heathen lands, and sent (as it IS sent) in vain, Come over, and help us. (Acts xvi. 9.)

In the MISSIONARY servants of the Church that word is eminently fulfilled, Ye are the light of the world. Look at the primitive Schwarz and Brainerd, the devoted Martyn, the beloved Corrie, and many others. How glorious, how godlike, was their employ! They were burning and shining lights, (John v. 35.) in the midst of darkness: displaying the glory of the Redeemer's love, and grace, and power to save, in the very midnight of Satan's empire. My brethren, Is it more blessed to give than to receive? Is it blessed to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked with a garment, to loose the captive, to rescue the oppressed from the grasp of the oppressor? Is it joy to heal the sick, to restore eyesight to the blind, to dry the widow's tear, and soothe the mourner? A DIVINER joy, a FAR NOBLER privilege is that of the ambassador of Christ: as far as heaven is above earth; as far as eternity exceeds time. The Son of God Himself came on this blessed errand, to give light to them that sit in darkness, and the shadow of death. (Luke i. 79.) He is the alone author of it, by His obedience unto death. Hence springs all the light that ever dawned on a fallen world: and He has made,—not angels; no, it is NOT THEIR privilege, but—redeemed sinners, sharers with Himself, in this bliss of dispensing it to men. Ye, saith He—ye, my followers—are the light of the world; and, Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. (Matt. xxviii. 20.)

And, Who are they, that are thus privileged? Is it the joy of FEW only, among the followers of Christ? Few, indeed, can go forth, to labour, PERSONALLY, among the heathen; but to ALL of us this word is addressed, Ye are the world's light. Light (you know) is not an assemblage of so many independent rays, emanating from the source of day. Light is composed of countless multitudes of minutest elements, each luminous in itself; each contributing its little quantum, insignificant in itself; singly, quite unassignable in amount; but the SUM of them is LIGHT. Now, so, Christians, it is with you. Ye are the world's light, not singly, not independently, one of the other: no, it is the privilege of ALL, though of each of us in a different way, to shine for Christ, in the earth. Light, again, is NOT ONE colour, but the union of ALL colours: and so it is the assemblage, the sweet BLENDING and CONCOURSE of Christian graces, that makes believers, TOGETHER, the world's light. If Christians abroad must LABOUR, Christians at home must PRAY. This is THEIR Missionary work. If Christians abroad must go forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles, (3 John, ver. 7.) Christians at home must ENABLE them to do this, by a liberal pouring of their wealth into the Lord's treasury: and this, again, is THEIR Missionary work.

Christian mothers, I speak to you. Do you say, How shall WE be the light of the world? I answer, You can do, what none can do BESIDE you. If you cannot BE Misssionaries, you can TRAIN Missionaries. Like Hannah, you can offer your children, early, to the Lord's service; and the Lord will accept them. You can do, for God, what Lois and Eunice did. They took the child Timothy, and they taught that child EARLY to know the holy Scriptures. (2 Tim. iii. 15.) Now, herein, they did important Missionary work. Herein they were the light of the world; and God OWNED their labour, and took that young man, and made him the honoured companion, and fellow labourer, of the great apostle, among the Gentiles. O parents, only grudge not your children to the Lord, and the Lord will not grudge to give them, or to spare, and bless them, when given.

Christian brethren in the ministry, suffer me to say to you, Ye can be the light of the world, while you are tending your particular charge at home. You can call upon your flocks to SEND FORTH the light. You can say to your congregations, We indeed POSSESS the light: Who of us will CARRY IT FORTH, for Christ, to the nations? Look at the venerable Simeon. That holy man, shining at Cambridge, was the light of the world. He availed himself of his peculiar position, as he stood at one of the fountains of light of the Church of England; and he said to one and another, as the Lord sanctified them for Himself,—"India wants you. The heathen call for you. Go over, and help them."

I beseech you, then, beloved, consider this. It is a privilege of ALL, which is here declared. Pious artificers, pious schoolmasters, and female teachers,—in a word, pious men and women, in every department, are needed for the Missionary service. Not one is there, of all this assembly, but God has honoured him with ability to do SOMETHING, towards bearing the light of life to the world.

But, if this be so, then, my brethren, I must go one step further, and ask, What ARE you doing? for, remember, this is NOT PRIVILEGE ONLY. Consider it,

2. In the way of DUTY, and OBLIGATION. Have you light in Christ for your own souls. Then it is absolutely IMPOSSIBLE for you NOT to shine. A city set on a hill, saith Christ, CANNOT be hid. (ver. 14.) He varies the figure, but it is only to express, more forcibly, the utter impossibility of any, who really POSSESS Christ, failing to EXHIBIT Christ, to them who know Him not. Further, He represents this as His very INTENTION, in IMPARTING light to them. Neither, He immediately adds, do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; that they which enter in may SEE the light. (ver. 15.) Yes, and for this, Christian brethren, has Christ (if at all) lighted the candle of His grace, in your hearts,—not that you should sit still, while others perish, and boast over them, and say, "Thank God, I see:" no, but that you may DIFFUSE the heavenly light; that you may account of yourselves, "I am a light for Jesus, in the darkness of this world. How am I shining for Him? Who is the better, for the blessed knowledge of salvation, which, through infinite mercy, I enjoy?"

My brethren, picture to yourselves a dark and stormy sea, covered with innumerable vessels of every kind. See them conflicting with the pitiless waves: driven of fierce winds, amidst reefs and shoals. Hear the shriek of despair, from some of them already stranded, while others of them are striving, if it be possible, to descry a port, through the surrounding gloom. Picture to yourselves, again, a friendly light kindled on the shore: or a light-house, darting its welcome rays through the gloom, and directing them to the haven where they would be. And then, conceive the miscreant hand, that should have FED that light, suddenly EXTINGUISHING it, or refusing to tend it through the night, and lying down in selfish, heartless slumberings. O, I ask, What name of hate and execration were black enough, what expression of burning indignation deep enough, to convey a sense of the atrocity? Why, Christian, THOU art the man! Thou art that sleeper! Thou art that heartless gazer on the scene of horrors, who canst possess the blessed light of the gospel, and hide it from countless multitudes of immortal beings, who are dropping, on every side, into a dread eternity! Indeed, my brethren, this is no exaggeration. The day that is at hand will call up, against the professing Church, a thousand times ten thousand tongues, to plead against her, as having HAD the light of life, and COVERED it from a drowning world. Ye are the light of the world. O awake, then, to your responsibility! It is a solemn trust that is reposed in you. Woe, woe to him that is unfaithful in it!

My brethren, I would have our congregations think of this; I mean, AS CONGREGATIONS. I believe there are many, who are ready to help in this cause; but they see not, clearly, what is best to be done. Now, I confess, I wish to see every congregation, at least every large parish in the land, furnishing its own proper labourer to the Church Missionary Society, and supporting that labourer, to be employed at the discretion of the Society, as the light of that congregation, for the world. Think, my brethren, what a mighty increase would be produced, in the amount of Missionary enterprise, if only every principal parish in the land had its own supported Missionary: and, surely, there is nothing, in this demand, that can be deemed unreasonable. Why, then, is it otherwise? Because the duty has not been FELT as such. Ministers, and their flocks, have not AIMED at this, so as that they have been pained, till it was accomplished. It has not been the prayer of Christians to God, that he would stir up the hearts of his people, to engage in this delightful service. My brethren, Missionary work is the work OF THE CHURCH: and this work is not fulfilled, by the mere annual guinea dropped into the treasury of this Society. Congregations, as such, should take up the work; and if a labourer were thus furnished to the Society, or a Church built in a heathen land, by a particular congregation, or by a small body of opulent Christians, and the expenses of that labourer (or that building) considered as those of the congregation, or company of Christians, a far more lively interest would thus be kept up among us, in respect of Missions, than is now common. I much fear, we have given our subscriptions, with all willingness, to this or other similar Societies, but it has been to pay them (as it were) for taking the burden of Missionary responsibility off our consciences. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Ye are the light of the world. I ask you, then, as members of particular congregations, Where is your workman for God? Where has your light arisen, for Christ, among the benighted nations of the earth?

But there is a further obligation which lies upon us, beside that of contributing labourers and funds. There is the duty of PRAYER. This is Missionary work, which EVERY Christian person may render, and which is, absolutely, of the VERY FIRST order, and importance. My brethren, prayer at home is the life of missions abroad. We read of stations broken up: of savages that had been tame, becoming furious: of disappointments, and difficulties, and discouragements of various kinds, to our Missionaries. What is the meaning of these? Is the Lord's hand shortened? No, but prayer must MOVE that hand: and these providences tell us, Christians are asleep; Christians are unbelieving. They are thinking nothing of the efficacy of prayer in secret, for the spread of the gospel. They are silent, and THEREFORE Satan is free.

And note this, my brethren, of prayer. In ANOTHER way, it is a most effectual promoter of missions. Where the Lord gives a PRAYING heart, there He gives a LIBERAL heart. A man cannot pray fervently to God, for the success of missions, and then shut his hand. For, what does prayer say? "Lord," it in effect says, "make present labourers insufficient; make present means inadequate. Multiply openings for exertion, and calls, from the heathen, for the light of life." And when prayer brings an ANSWER to prayer, as it assuredly DOES bring it, O, then, the praying soul will be a giving soul. That man cannot turn away, and say, I have done enough. No: he has prayed God that it may NOT be enough. He deviseth liberal things still, and by liberal things shall he stand. (Is. xxxii. 8.) PRAY FOR US, saith the apostle, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you. (2 Thess. iii. 1.)

My brethren, I cannot now enlarge; but remember what has been said. Ye,—ye ALL, are the light of the world: not one is exempt. O, then, SHINE, as lights in the world, holding forth the word of life! (Phil. ii. 15, 16.) If you cannot shine by immediate, PERSONAL labours, by GIVING light, then FEED that light which OTHERS give. Feed it, not by the mere occasional contribution, which just quiets conscience, and so enables you to dismiss the misery of the heathen from your minds; but feed it, especially, by STATED and earnest PRAYER: make affectionate mention of it, in your families: make self-denying exertions for it, in your neighbourhood. Genuine light MUST shine; MUST diffuse itself. It is its very NATURE. And so it is with the true Christian: he MUST be doing for God, according to the ability which God has given him. He will testify against the darkness of this world; and to the utmost of his power he strives to DISSIPATE the darkness; to bring the light of life, which has visited his own soul, to those who are in the shadow of death.

And here I cannot help saying, that Christians, in the present day, have a SPECIAL duty to perform, as they are the light of the world, in respect of the countenance which is given, by the government of our Indian Empire, to the idolatrous usages of that people. A government, calling itself Christian, still clings to a polluted revenue, derived from the pageants of idolatry; and even pays a band of pilgrim-hunters, who shall go about the country to bring together votaries, and swell the attendance on the wretched festivals! The same government repairs the idol temples! salaries the officers of those temples! honours their infamous processions with presents and offerings, in the name of the British authorities! and, instead of Christianizing the poor deluded idolaters, even COMPELS the attendance at the festival of its own officers, civil and military,—(if it so happen, even on the Sabbath,)—and prostitutes the consciences of its servants to do honour to the vilest rites of heathenism!!

And, Is THIS (we ask) to be called NEUTRALITY? odious as neutrality is, in such a case. Is this a NON-INTERFERENCE with native superstitions? Rather, is it not, openly and flagrantly, to COUNTENANCE their abominations? So the heathen themselves regard it, as I know from personal experience. The remark was made to me by my Pundit, (a learned Hindoo). "Sir," said he, "Christians cannot think any great harm of our idolatry. You yourselves give an offering of broad-cloth to the idol."—My brethren, this is a scandal which calls for the loudest voice, the deepest brand, of national indignation. This is a wickedness which must call down the heaviest curse of an outraged God upon its perpetrators, and upon all who stand by and allow it.

The senseless cry of danger to our Indian possessions has been raised long enough. If it were true,—and it is NOT true,—but, if it WERE so, Perish, I would say, the accursed gains, that can only be kept at the price of souls! This cry was raised, when the first Missionary landed on the shores of India. It was redoubled, when the holy enterprise of Buchanan, seconded by Christians in this country, obtained for India, under the blessing of God, an ecclesiastical establishment. It retarded, for years, the abolition of Suttee: not the fear of Hindoos abroad, but the dread of outcry among men calling themselves Christians, at home.

"India," it was said, "will be lost;" and, behold, India is ours still: yes, and ours by a firmer tenure than it ever was; as we hold it for God our Saviour, and the enlightening of its wretched millions.

I do feel strongly, then, that this is a matter which should no longer be left, by a general and most culpable indifference, to the zeal (however honourable) of an individual. Christians are bound to make their voice HEARD on this subject; and to FORCE, by that voice, those who will be influenced by no better motives, to forego the wages of iniquity. Ye are the light of the world. Christians, it is yours to GUARD the light: to be ZEALOUS for the truth in the earth: to denounce the darkness of this world, under whatever specious form it may disguise itself: and to see that the blessed light of the Gospel shall shine free, and uncontaminated, through the length and breadth of the habitable globe.

There is yet one topic left, with which I will conclude; a topic intimately connected with Missionary enterprise, and too important, in every way, to be omitted: though, to some of you, perhaps, I may seem, by what shall be said, rather to DAMP your energies, in this holy cause. I mean, OUR LEGITIMATE EXPECTATIONS: the prospects of success, which the word of God authorises Christians to expect, in this work and labour of love. And here I must be understood, as expressing only my own individual convictions; and not as in any degree pledging the Society, of which I may be thought, in some measure, the representative, on this occasion.

I am aware, that there are those, who look for the universal establishment of the gospel in the earth, the promised enlargement and triumph of the Church, in the latter day, as the result of efforts, such as this and other Societies are making, for the diffusion of the light of life. By these they trust that the present twilight of Christian principle will, gradually, and imperceptibly, increase into the brightness of that day of glory, and universal blessedness, of which all prophecy is full. My brethren, I should be extremely sorry, on this interesting occasion, unnecessarily to do violence to the prejudices of any; but it is due to truth to confess, that I have no such expectations. I am deeply convinced, that they are grounded on entirely mistaken views of the character of the present Gentile dispensation. The times of the Gentiles (Luke xxi. 24.), which are now fast running out, are times (as I conceive) in which God (according to that remarkable, but little heeded testimony of St. James) is visiting the Gentiles, to TAKE OUT OF THEM a people unto his name. (Acts xv. 14.) They are times, therefore, of an ELECTION, and of an election ONLY, so long as they last: and the most rapid and superficial glance at the history of the Church, and especially of Christian Missions, is sufficient to show, that, hitherto, at least, such has been the character of the dispensation, throughout the 1800 years during which it has continued. No where has Christianity been permanent, in any thing like its original purity. The light is gone out, which once shone so bright, in the seven Churches of Asia. The same has been the case with Carthage, and its neighbourhood. Christian Egypt—Christian Persia—where are they? These countries are Christian no longer. Christianity has visited place after place, NOT RETAINING its conquests; but remaining, perhaps, for a few centuries, at most, it has "taken out a people," and been content. No where has there been an instance of a truly righteous nation; of Christianity SANCTIFYING the great MASSES of a population; of a people, generally, and truly, righteous; acknowledging Christ as King, and ordering themselves, strictly, by His laws.

Such HAS BEEN our experience hitherto, and such, I believe, it WILL BE, "till the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Then, and not before, the present dispensation will be succeeded by a dispensation of glory, introduced by the King himself from heaven, whose name is, Jehovah, our Righteousness. (Jerem. xxiii. 6.) Then shall be seen, in the restored Jewish nation, the first example of a truly righteous nation; as it is foretold of them, Thy people shall be ALL RIGHTEOUS: they shall inherit the land for ever. (Is. lx. 21.) And then shall all those glorious predictions receive their literal and full accomplishment, which describe the reign of holiness and happiness, throughout the earth. The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. (Habak. ii. 14.) From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, my name (saith Jehovah) shall be great among the Gentiles, and, in every place, incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering. (Mal. i. 11.)

Thus, the final triumph, the full establishment of His gospel in the earth, is reserved to Jesus Himself—The Light of the world—the Sun of Righteousness. And I feel, that these sober and chastened views of the probable result of Missionary exertion, in the present dispensation, are of the utmost importance, if we would escape discouragement, and mortification, at the supposed failure of legitimate hopes, in the continued prevalence of ungodliness, both at home and abroad. A painful, and very injurious re-action must be the consequence of extravagant, and unscriptural expectation; as if the universal triumph of the gospel were to be achieved by any instrumentality, such as is now employed. Beloved, ye are, indeed, the light of the world; but mistake not the character in which ye shine. Ye are the candle of the Lord (ver. 15.), in the midst of prevailing darkness. Ye may, ye shall ILLUMINE the night; but ye may not utterly DISPEL, and ANNIHILATE it. It is Jesus Himself, who is THE SUN. It is HIS manifestation, which shall make that day of glory, to which all prophecy directs our longing gaze. But, in the mean time, remember, YOUR privilege is not small. It is the very same with that of apostles themselves, and of prophets and all the cloud of witnesses who preceded them: by all means TO SAVE SOME (1 Cor. ix. 22.): to shine for Christ amidst surrounding gloom: yes, and, by your blessed shining, to gather out to Christ, in successive generations, a multitude which no man can number, out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. (Rev. vii. 9.) Let your light, then, so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. (ver. 16.) Be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Cor. xv. 58.) Amen.

THE COMMITTEE.

DELIVERED, IN SUBSTANCE,

TO THE ANNUAL MEETING,

HELD MAY 1, 1838,

AT EXETER HALL, STRAND.

REPORT,

&c. &c.

YOUR Committee, in presenting the Thirty-eighth Report of the Society, are more deeply impressed than ever with the magnitude of the undertaking before them; and with the responsibility resting on those who are engaged, either at home or abroad, in the conduct of the Society's affairs. Profoundly convinced of the utter unworthiness and insufficiency of all human instruments, they are, nevertheless, emboldened to commend this work as most honourable, and most delightful to those who labour in it with pure and holy motives. The field is the world;—and may not every one, who contributes toward making or handling the plough by which this field is broken up, or who provides the seed with which it is sown, rejoice to see that God is giving the increase? God has indeed blessed this Society, by the enlargement of its funds; by the increasing prosperity, generally speaking, of its plans; and by the protection of His good providence vouchsafed to the Missionaries. Your Committee are aware that they can speak but the language of fallible men; yet, from what is now passing in the world at large, they cannot, and they would not, resist the conviction, that God is with us. He HATH indeed blest; and the Word of Promise assures us, that He will continue to bless us, and that all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

STATE OF THE FUNDS.

	£	s.	d.
Institution Buildings' Fund.....	6	6	0
Disabled Missionaries' Fund	739	13	7
General Fund	82,701	11	8
Making a Total of....	£ 83,447	11	3

The preceding Year's Receipts stood thus:—

General Fund.....	71,098	3	0
Disabled Missionaries' Fund.....	615	4	6
Institution Buildings' Fund.....	13	13	0
Total	£ 71,727	0	6

The increase, therefore, on the last Year's Receipts, is, £ 11,720. 10*s.* 9*d.*

For the blessing thus vouchsafed, in the large increase of the pecuniary means of the Society, the Committee desire, with unfeigned thankfulness, to give glory to God. It is also with a deep sense of the increased responsibility imposed upon them, that the Committee report this prosperous state of the Society's Income. They earnestly entreat the prayers of the friends of the Society, that they may be enabled so to administer the abundant gift entrusted to them, as may be well pleasing in His sight, whose is the silver and the gold, and as He will render most conducive to His own glory, in the enlargement of the Redeemer's kingdom in the earth.

Some analysis of the Receipts of the Year is necessary, in order more distinctly to exhibit the financial situation of the Society. This will be done by comparing the principal items of the last and preceding Year's Receipts:—

		£	s.	d.
Benefactions	1836-37	4939	3	5
	1837-38	7228	18	10
	Increase	2289	15	5
Legacies	1836-37	1404	18	3
	1837-38	5642	6	6
	Increase	4237	8	3
Associations	1836-37	54,210	13	1
	1837-38	61,871	4	4
	Increase	7660	11	3

It will hence be seen, that no less a sum than £7660 of the increase in the Society's last year's income arises from Association Contributions; which may be assumed to indicate a steady growth of interest in the great object of the Society, among the Members of our Church throughout the kingdom.

On the other hand, the Expenditure of the Society has risen to an amount considerably exceeding that of any former year; the total on the General Account being £86,540. 17*s.* 2*d.* This excess in the expenditure has been occasioned, to some extent, by incidental causes, not affecting the ratio of expenditure in the departments in which it occurs. The period of the arrival of Bills from India has been accelerated by the arrangements made, during the last year, for steam communication with that country. This has, probably, brought into the year's expenditure £5000 or £6000 more than the average amount, on account of the India Missions. In the case of the North-India Mission, the amount has been still further augmented by arrangements for drawing Bills at shorter dates than formerly; which came into operation during the last year.

The expenditure in the West Indies has, during the last year, exceeded the estimated amount, to the extent of upward of £3000. This excess is to be ascribed, partly, to the greater cost of the erection of School-houses than had been anticipated. No Bills on account of the North-West-America Mission having reached this country in the year 1836-37, an amount of nearly £1000 falls on the charge of 1837-38 beyond the ratio of expenditure in that Mission. The expenditure connected with the formation of the Zoolu Mission, South Africa, has exceeded the estimated amount by about £700. An increase occurs of about £2000 in the last year, under the head of Disabled Missionaries, &c., beyond the amount of the preceding year. The number of Missionaries sent out in the preceding year, Twenty-six—more than in any year since the formation of the Society—has increased the expenditure under the heads of "Outfit" and "Passage."

While, however, the principal part of the excess of the expenditure of the last year, over that of the year before, is thus accounted for, the Committee are of opinion that a careful revision of the whole expenditure will be advantageous in the ensuing year; with a view so to regulate all branches of it, that it may not exceed the limits prescribed by the amount of the Society's income.

ASSOCIATION PROCEEDINGS.

As might be anticipated from the increase of Association Contributions, the Committee have to report an increase in the number of Associations. During the past year, Fifty-three new Associations have been formed, which are widely spread over the kingdom. Much ground, however, still remains unoccupied. The Committee have, therefore, during the year, enlarged the Agency for visiting Associations; convinced, by experience, that it is only by this course of proceeding that the Society's Home operations can be extended, so as adequately to meet the growing demands upon it for the enlargement of its operations abroad.

The Committee have again gratefully to make their acknowledgments to those Clerical and Lay Friends who have acted as Deputations to Associations, in the past year. The continuance of these services the Committee earnestly solicit. They would especially urge the importance of rendering such services locally, on a well-arranged system. Without such aid, systematically rendered, the Committee will find it impracticable, notwithstanding the increase of Association Agency, steadily to carry forward this department of labour; on which, under the Divine Blessing, the means of extending the Society's Missions depend.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

In the course of the past year, Five of the Society's Candidates have been admitted by the Bishop of London to Deacon's Orders, and Two to Priest's Orders; exclusive of One who has been admitted by the Archbishop of Canterbury to Priest's Orders. One has, also, been admitted to Deacon's Orders by the Bishop of Jamaica.

INSTITUTION.

Every successive year more deeply impresses the Committee with the importance and usefulness of the Islington Institution. The Principal's Annual Report to the Committee of Visitors thus satisfactorily exhibits its present state:—

In presenting another Annual Report of the state of this Institution, the Principal has reason to express much gratitude to Almighty God, that he has to record a year of great internal prosperity. Nothing has occurred to interrupt the general well-being and comfort of the whole establishment. Some little inconveniences in the domestic machinery, which occasioned trouble in former years, have been remedied; the studies proper to the place have been diligently pursued; a remarkable spirit of union prevails among the Students; and there is every reason to believe that vital piety and Missionary zeal are as abundant among us as at any former period.

The Principal adds:—

In touching on the excellent spirit that now prevails among the Students, as affecting their relations to one another, and to those who are set over them or under them, the Principal cannot but remark on the importance of most carefully keeping out, or, if it have unhappily crept in, of purging out, any evil leaven. A single individual of a proud and froward temper is sufficient to disturb the whole Society for months, to injure the tone of feeling throughout, and to infuse a bad principle into many of those associated with him, which it may be difficult or impossible to eradicate. On the other hand, the conversation and example of a man of high religious bearing, and thoroughly devoted to his work, especially if he be somewhat in advance of the rest in mental qualities and attainments, has been found to exercise an influence greatly and lastingly beneficial. It would tend unspeakably to the advantage of the Institution never to be without one or two inmates of that superior stamp.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES.

During the past year, the Committee have been led carefully to review the qualifications required in Missionary Candidates.

They were induced to do so, partly by the advanced state of the Society's Missions, in consequence of which fewer Catechists are likely to be required than formerly; and partly, by a desire to convey to the Members of the Society at large a distinct view of the leading Qualifications required in those who contemplate entering on the arduous duties of a Missionary to the Heathen. The result of the Committee's deliberations on this subject, so essential to the efficiency of the Society's operations, is comprised in a Letter to the Secretaries of Associations*; to which they earnestly solicit the attention of the Members at large.

The Committee are, at the same time, desirous strongly to impress on the minds of the Members, that there never was a period when the need of able Ministers of the New Testament, for the prosecution of Missionary labours among the Heathen, was more urgently felt by them than at the present time. They have had the satisfaction to receive into connexion with the Society, as Missionaries, in the last year, several Clergymen, who had previously been engaged in parochial duties at home, and who had thus acquired a maturity of judgment and character of great importance in facilitating their entering with advantage on their Missionary labours.

The Committee have not hitherto received that accession to their Missionary strength from the Universities which they would hail with peculiar pleasure.

INSTITUTION BUILDINGS' FUND.

The object for which the Institution Buildings' Fund was opened having been completed, the Committee directed that it should be closed on the 31st of March last. The balance in hand, 19*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*, was paid over to the General Fund.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

In the course of the past year were sent forth, Nine Ordained Missionaries, Sixteen Catechists and Artisans, and One Female Teacher. Six of these being married, the total number of individuals sent out is Thirty-two. This number includes two Missionaries who have returned to their Stations, and one Missionary who has been appointed to a new Station.

The total number of Labourers at present engaged in the service of the Society, as Ordained Missionaries or Catechists, amounts to One Hundred and Sixty-eight; exclusive of Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

The Committee are thankful to report, that the malignant fever, with which this colony was last year afflicted, has, through the Divine Mercy, abated. The sparing hand of God was signally manifested toward the large family of Missionary Labourers in this colony; not one having been removed by death. During this season of affliction, a day of general supplication was appointed. Mr. Warburton thus describes the observance of it, at the Station at Kissey:—

June 6, 1837—This day having been appointed as a day of humiliation and prayer on account of the epidemic fever now fearfully prevailing in Freetown, Divine Service was kept here, morning and evening. The attendance was nearly as large as on Lord's Days; and great seriousness was observable. Labour was suspended, and the village was quiet. May our prayers be heard!

During the past year, the Committee have been induced, both by the urgent wants of the colony, and the evident tokens of the Divine Blessing resting on this Mission, to send a considerable reinforcement of Labourers. How seasonable, and how welcome, they were, will appear from the reception which they met on arriving in the colony. One of them, describing his arrival, and his subsequent journey through the country-parts to his Station, relates:—

This day, a little incident came under my notice, which, although simple in itself, kindled in my bosom a Missionary zeal and love for the souls of these benighted Africans. On my way from Freetown to Gloucester, there were many children in the road; who, when they saw me, as I passed by them, said to each other, "New white man—new Mission!" All of them exclaimed, with a smiling countenance, "Thank God!" This little occurrence opened to my mind the readiness and willingness of native children to receive those who are sent to instruct them.

On occasion, likewise, of its being announced by the Catechist in charge of Bathurst and Charlotte, that the increased number of Labourers would enable them to establish separate Services and Schools at Charlotte, "Thank you, Sir! thank you, Sir!" was answered by a hundred voices in the congregation. "I bade them," says the Catechist, "thank, not me, but God."

FREETOWN.

Of the Congregation at Gibraltar Chapel, the Rev. J. U. Graf gives the following account, at the close of the quarter, ending March 25, 1837:—

As regards this Place of Worship, in which Divine Service is held twice on the Lord's Day, and once in the week, I can say, that I have been pleased with the regular attendance of the people on the Lord's-Day Morning Service; when the Chapel is not only full, but a good number of children, with their mothers, sit outside. The same, however, cannot be said of their attendance in the week, and on Lord's-Day Evenings.

FOURAH BAY.

Of the Christian Institution, the Rev. J. U. Graf writes, March 25, 1837:—

Our youths are making satisfactory progress, every one according to his capacities. All are working assiduously, and with pleasure: their conduct gives me general satisfaction; and I cannot but entertain good hopes with repect to the future usefulness of most of them. Their number has been increased to 19, which is the present number. During the quarter, two have left our roof, after a residence of several years under it, to labour at the Missionary Stations in the colony.

RIVER DISTRICT.

The Stations in this District, occupied by the Society, are, Kissey, Wellington, and Hastings.

The Congregations at Kissey continue to be large. Mr. J. Warburton, the Catechist stationed here, remarks, in reference to the aid which is rendered by Native Teachers:—

Oct. 1, 1836—One of my Helpers came to tell me, that he had visited a part of the village where the people did not attend the House of God. He said, that he had exhorted them to do so; and that, as they were willing to provide a lamp and oil, he desired to commence a weekly meeting, for prayer and reading the Scriptures, with such as were willing to attend. I encouraged his desire; but told him to consider, whether he could continue it with regularity, as he had one meeting already to attend to. He answered, "I will give myself to prayer, that I may not wear out."

The zeal of the people at Wellington, in the repair of their Church—which about eight years ago they themselves built, and which is therefore their own property—is thus described by Mr. E. Collins:—

It is with some degree of satisfaction that I contrast the present neat appearance of our little Church with its forlorn condition last year. Then we had scarcely a bench to sit upon; the fence round the Church was broken down; the flooring had given way—having been destroyed by the white ants; and the whole premises bore evident marks of desertion and desolation. Now we have benches for the whole congregation; the floor has been paved in a substantial manner; and a durable fence has been run round the building. All this has been effected by the people in connexion with us; who have subscribed more than 30*l.* toward these several objects.

The Rev. J. F. Schön, labouring at Hastings, has suffered much in his health. He has also been recently called to mourn the death of his wife: she was a young person peculiarly dear to the Mission, as being the orphan daughter of the late Rev. G. R. Nyländer, one of the first Missionaries in Sierra Leone; and had been latterly much afflicted in her health. Mr. Schön reports concerning his labours at Hastings—

June 24, 1837—I feel thankful for the increase of the number of attendants at our Public Services. I have been laid up several times, and therefore unable to conduct them myself. At such times, all has devolved upon the Native Catechist, John Attarra. On Lord's-Day Mornings, we have several times had a congregation of nearly 500 persons; who have behaved very well, and paid much attention to the Word of God. The Evening and Week-day Services are not so well attended.

MOUNTAIN DISTRICT.

This District comprehends the Stations of Gloucester, Regent, Bathurst, and Charlotte.

The Committee are happy to state, likewise, that Kent, the most Southern Station in the colony, has recently been reoccupied by the Society, to the great joy of the inhabitants.

The Rev. J. W. Weeks, in describing his examinations of Candidates and Communicants at Gloucester and Regent, adverts to a circumstance highly encouraging to Missionary Labourers. Having mentioned eight persons coming as Candidates for Baptism, he adds—

One of them was formerly my servant; and another was a scholar of mine, eleven years ago. I well remember how I mourned, and often felt discouraged, because I could perceive no fruit from all my labours, for a long time after that period; but now, after many days, the instructions then given are found, through the rich grace and blessing of God, producing the all-important inquiry, What must I do to be saved? Another has been eighteen years in the Colony, without ever having manifested any serious regard for her immortal soul. Now she wonders at the long-suffering of God, in bearing with her sins so many years; and that she should have lived so long where the Gospel has been preached, without endeavouring to serve God.

The following account, by the Rev. C. F. Schlenker, describes the baptism of a small number of his charge. It is thus that, from time to time, professed disciples are added to the Church.

I had Service at Gloucester. The church was quite crowded. Before me stood twelve persons, four men and eight women, all clothed in white; whom I baptized, after the Second Lesson. I had met them almost every day for the last six weeks. The whole congregation took, as it seemed to me, great interest in this Service; and the candidates themselves, on whose hearts the Lord has, I trust, wrought effectually, felt with thankfulness the importance of the step which they were taking, and of the great promises which they made to the Lord, by devoting themselves henceforth to Him, into whose visible Church they have now been received.

In former Reports, mention has been made of the devout regard paid to the Lord's Day in those parts of the colony where the influence of the Missionaries prevails. The following description shows the impression made by this circumstance upon the mind of a newly-arrived person. Mr. H. Townsend observes—

No one arriving here would imagine that he was in a country the inhabitants of which have been accustomed to idolatry; but in one where God had been for many years worshipped in spirit and in truth. The solemn stillness of the Day of Rest reigns around: business and work are laid aside; and numbers of both sexes are seen hastening to School, to learn to read, and to be instructed in the Christian Religion.

It is matter of thankfulness to your Committee, to be enabled to state, that the Native Teachers, proceeding generally from the Christian Institution at Fourah Bay, increase in efficiency: and if any additional proof were wanting of the benefits which, through the Divine Blessing, have attended the Society's labours, the Committee might refer to the narratives given by three Liberated Africans of their former life, and of that remarkable course of providence by which, having been brought as slaves from the interior, they have eventually become Teachers of the Gospel to their countrymen in Sierra Leone. These narratives have been printed in the Society's Record*. One of them thus sums up his remarks:—

Undoubtedly the Lord is carrying on His good work of grace in the heart of many a one, even in this colony. When I look back at the former state of some of our people, a few years ago, and at the present, it is indeed an object of joy and gladness to me to see many whose hearts were hardened against the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, but who now are inquiring after the Way of Salvation with much earnestness. I doubt not that the Lord is blessing the labours of His Servants in this colony.

The Committee, while recording the many instances of spiritual blessings received in this Mission, regret to state, that the outward circumstances of the Missionaries have been peculiarly trying, in consequence of the dilapidated state of the churches, and of their dwelling-houses. The dwelling-houses needing much repair, and, in some instances, total rebuilding, will require, as being the Society's property, considerable outlay of the funds*.

SOUTH-EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

THE Committee have received various important communications from the Rev. F. Owen; who has been enabled, under the divine protection, to commence his Mission in the Zoolu Country. The king, Dingan, has received him favourably, and assigned a suitable residence for his family.

On his way thither, stopping for a short time at the Cape of Good Hope, Mr. Owen was enabled to carry into effect the wishes of the Committee in the formation of the Cape-of-Good-Hope Church-Missionary Association. At the Public Meeting for this purpose, which was numerously and most respectably attended, His Excellency the Governor presided, and the Clergy of the colony took part in the proceedings. Great interest was excited; and Capt. Gardiner, who was present, gave an animated description of the country to which this Mission is directed†.

Mr. Owen, on entering on his Missionary labours in the Zoolu Country, has already followed out the Instructions of the Committee, in two chief particulars—Preaching, and Teaching the Young. At his first solemn audience of Dingan, on a Lord's Day, he had permission to preach God's Word to him and his household. The substance of his discourses, delivered through an Interpreter, on this and on subsequent occasions, was an outline of the principal parts of the Bible: especially, he preached to them Jesus and the Resurrection. This doctrine appears to have excited profound attention and eager curiosity; and "Who can tell," Mr. Owen justly remarks, "what reflections may arise in his mind; and how the Spirit of God may, by means of this doctrine, and the conclusions to which it may lead him, strive with his soul, till he be brought to repentance, and to such a state of mind as will prepare him to receive the Gospel*?"

By direction of Dingan, a few Native Youths attended Mr. Owen for instruction. The following is his simple narrative of their first lessons:—

Oct. 11, 1837—I asked whether they would promise to take pains, if I taught them: with characteristic freedom and ingenuousness, they said they must first know what it was that I was going to teach them. I then produced a card, containing letters, &c.; at the top of which, on the first line, were the five vowels, which I made them repeat after me. This they did with great interest, as their countenances showed. Presently, I surrendered my office to my Interpreter; but continued to stand by. In the course of an hour, they could pretty well bear to be dodged; and showed, in their tractability as well as their quickness, an example that would shame many English scholars. The strict discipline in which the Natives are kept, and the obedience which they are accustomed to pay to the commands of their superiors, render them very docile: and this spirit of obedience is manifested in the children; for it would be difficult to find twelve English boys of equal vivacity with these, and at the same time so obedient to every word spoken. I occasionally interrupted the Reading-lesson with a plain account of the Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man, with questioning them on it; but all was so perfectly new to them, that I could only discover one idea that they retained; viz. that man was made out of the dust. Before they separated, I took down their names; some of which were in sense, as well as sound, sufficiently ludicrous. I then told them, that I wanted now to teach them how to pray to God: so, telling them to kneel down, and to be as silent as possible, not looking about them, playing, or talking, I bade them repeat, after my Interpreter, the Lord's Prayer; which they did with the greatest quietness and gravity. To conclude, I bade them wish me good morning, in their own way: upon which they all exclaimed, "Shlala guthle umfundis," (Rest quietly, Teacher!) I told them to come again in the morning.—The biggest of them, a sharp boy about fifteen years old, told the rest, who were much younger, that they must learn, as their king had ordered them.

A week after this, Mr. Owen reports of his scholars:—

Oct. 19, 1837—The children attended at six o'clock. I told them that I had come from the other side of the sea, to tell them about Jesus, and to teach them to love Him. One boy exclaimed, "Siyamtanda," (We do love Him.) "But," I said, "you cannot love Him yet, because you do not know Him; but I hope, that when you do know Him, then you will love Him:" and I asked whether they desired to know Him and to love Him. Several of them said that they did desire. I then gave a very brief account of the life, character, death, and resurrection of Jesus; and afterward taught them to repeat the Lord's Prayer, as usual. In the afternoon, they attended again, with an increase of numbers.

The king himself became desirous to learn. Mr. Owen thus describes his attempts in this particular:—

Oct. 14—Dingan asked to see the card; when I taught him first the vowels, and then part of a column of syllables. He seemed highly amused, and called his servants together, to see him learn. When I told him that he should endeavour to distinguish the letters, he said his eyes must first become more accustomed to them. He presently retired, to wash; when I taught the children; many persons, chiefly the king's servants, sitting by. I afterward repeated to them, again, the same account which I gave them yesterday, of the Creation, and Fall of Man. Dingan returned in the midst of it, and listened, sometimes smiling. He again said his lesson over and over; and, indeed, proved an apter scholar than, for his age, I could have imagined him to be.

The Committee have strengthened this Mission by the addition of a Catechist, with his family: and a Married Medical Gentleman is about to join the Mission immediately.

MALTA.

THE operations of the Mission in this Island have continued in the same manner as reported last year. The Rev. C. F. Schlienz, under the direction of the Committee, has sailed for Egypt, and Syria. His principal object is, to prosecute investigations, which may aid him in the intended new Arabic Translation of the Bible. The Arabic Version of the Book of Common Prayer, still under his hands, will also derive advantage from this visit to the East.

The issue of Publications from the Malta Press during the past year has been as follows:—

GREECE.

The Greek Schools under the Rev. F. Hildner, in the Island of Syra, have enjoyed, during the past year, a greater degree of security and prosperity than at any former time. The numbers also have increased; there being about 500 Scholars, of both sexes, in the Seminaries, Middle Schools, and Infant Schools. There is also a School in Crete, which has branched off from this, enjoying the general superintendence of Mr. Hildner, and having between 50 and 60 Scholars. The importance of this Station, in reference to the interests of Greece, and thereby to the promotion of pure Christianity in the East, is deeply felt by your Committee; and they have therefore strengthened it, by the addition of the Rev. T. Wolters and Mrs. Wolters; who have recently quitted Shusha, a Mission of the Basle Missionary Society, which has been broken up. They have also sent out a lady from this country —Miss M. C. Wilcox—to assist Mrs. Hildner in the female department of the Schools.

Mr. Hildner computes that there are in the kingdom of Greece more than 1100 young persons, from four to seventeen or twenty years of age, now enjoying the blessings of instruction and education according to Christian Principles: and there is the prospect that this number will considerably increase.

The value of that Scripture Education which is thus being given to many of the rising generation in Greece is the more strongly proved, inasmuch as there is ground to believe that these fair regions might otherwise have become the victim of Infidel Education. In fact, it is to be expected, that, in countries which have long been obscured by oppression and ignorance, there should be a struggle between three kinds of Education; which may be termed, the Superstitious, the Scriptural, and the Infidel systems. Of these three systems, one alone can expect a blessing from Him, who has so emphatically declared—*I am come a light into the world, that whosoever followeth after me, should not walk in darkness, but should have the light of life.

ASIA MINOR.

The Rev. J. A. Jetter and the Rev. P. Fjellstedt have found it impossible, under present circumstances, to resume their school-labours for the Greeks and the Armenians. The Armenians have, in a friendly way, declined their assistance; but the Greek Hierarchy have put forth their opposition to the uttermost. This state of things is deeply deplored by the more intelligent among the Greeks themselves; and it is to be hoped that their voice will be heard, and that they will not suffer the best interests of the rising generation to be sacrificed.

The Missionaries, meantime, have been availing themselves of every means in their power for cultivating the Turkish Language, and preparing useful and Scriptural books in it. They also, during the last year, made a visit to several parts of Asia Minor, distributing the Scriptures and Tracts, and gaining information. Many important considerations were suggested to their minds in this tour†: and most earnestly must every Christian, who surveys the state of those wasted regions, long and pray for that period when the Sun of Righteousness shall arise on them, with healing in His wings.

EGYPT.

The Rev. J. R. T. Lieder had, for a considerable time, been labouring alone at Caïro; till, in February 1837, he was rejoined by the Rev. W. Krusé. The Christian education of such young Natives as are entrusted to their care forms a principal part of their engagements; while they are also occupied with the regular preaching of the Gospel, and in occasional visits to various parts of Egypt, for the purpose of distributing the Scriptures, and making known the Truth.

* For further particulars concerning the Schools at Syra, see the Church Missionary Record, Vol. VIII. pp. 97—100; and Vol. IX. pp. 61—65.

† See the account of this Tour in the Church Missionary Record, Vol. IX. pp. 65—77.

Various fluctuations are occasionally taking place in this Mission, owing to the interruptions of the plague, the influence of superstition, and the uncertain employments of the Youths educated. To the last-named circumstance Mr. Krusé refers, lamenting that "the scholars will go when they have finished their studies, as the others have gone, and be obliged to seek their livelihood elsewhere, if we cannot employ them. Yet, he adds, as an encouragement to his labours—

I hear that those who have left us, and are employed elsewhere, have not forgotten what they learned here. Some of them, I have been informed, fight manfully with those with whom they are at work, and contend for the faith of the Gospel: and it is my constant prayer that the Lord may grant them grace, to abide faithful unto the end, and to be lights in the midst of a perverse generation.

Mr. Lieder, according to the latest accounts, was about commencing a tour in Upper Egypt, for Scripture distribution. He reports—

I take with me the Holy Scriptures, Tracts, School-books, and other useful works—more than 4000 copies. A treasure so large, perhaps, the Nile has never had the honour to carry to Upper Egypt, since its creation. I shall particularly everywhere turn my attention to the Schools; hoping to find, by God's grace, here and there, some blossoms and ripening fruits of my former exertions.*

ABYSSINIA.

The general state of this Mission is much the same as it was last year. The health of the Rev. Samuel Gobat has been such as to prevent his returning at present to Abyssinia; but the Rev. C. W. Isenberg and the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt are still enabled to pursue their labours, and to maintain their ground. On the subject of Scripture Translations, and the spirit of religious inquiry excited by them, Mr. Isenberg reports—

Hussein is copying the Translation of the Morning and Evening Prayers. The Tigré Translation of the New Testament has proceeded to the Epistle of St. James. By the stir which the priests made concerning us—few of whom knew any thing about our doctrine—several Defteras (Learned Men) have been induced to inquire: they from time to time question me concerning matters of Religion, and generally go away satisfied. One of them, Deftera Abisalom, who before this was disgusted with their unjust proceedings, knowing their ignorance, has now become our friend and defender; once exclaiming in anger, when others accused us of making our houses our churches—celebrating the Lord's Supper and baptizing in them—"Ye hypocrites! how dare ye to judge these people, and to condemn them—you being Heathens, and no Christians! They are true Christians: they may condemn you; for they know and keep the Word of God, and, by their lives, put shame upon you, who have no more of Christianity than the mere name!"—Such testimonies are encouraging, though not altogether satisfying. Our hope is in the Lord; and He will not put us to confusion.

Mr. Blumhardt remarks, that the situation of the Missionaries in Abyssinia is, at present, rather critical. Of the Abyssinian Priesthood, he writes—

> They begin to know what our objects are, in coming among them; viz. to convert them from superstition and idolatry, to the True God; which formerly they did not know so well. They are therefore constantly seeking to throw obstacles in our way; and if it were in their power, they would not for a moment suffer us to remain in their country.

The friendly protection of the Governor of the Province has been repeatedly extended toward the Mission; and that, on a recognition of the principle of equal toleration. He declares, that as he suffers Mahomedans in his country, and other religious parties, he will therefore suffer the Missionaries also. Thus the mouth of their enemies is stopped.

Your Committee earnestly commend this Mission to the sympathies of their Christian friends. Deeply interesting in itself, as it respects the Church and the country of Abyssinia, its importance is rendered yet more apparent, when the eye contemplates the proximity of Mahomedan Arabia on the East, and of the vast barbarous Interior of Africa on the West. The Society has now been enabled to light up a flame of Evangelic Truth in one spot on the Western, and at two points of the Eastern, side of Africa; and one near the South-Eastern. May that flame never be extinguished; but go on burning more and more brightly, till it has illumined the inmost recesses of that Continent! *

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

Your Committee having long felt it to be desirable that a Secretary should be appointed to the Corresponding Committee —on the same principle as has happily been in operation at Madras—they have the satisfaction to state, that that office has been accepted by the Rev. F. Wybrow. He arrived in Calcutta in November last, and was kindly received by the Lord Bishop and other friends of the Society.

In proportion as general knowledge has been on the increase in India, the obligation has been felt continually to raise higher the standard of qualification, for employment in the offices of Native Missionary and Catechist. To this end, after mature deliberation, it was determined by the Parent Committee, as stated in the last Report, to found a Head Seminary. In meeting these views, the Corresponding Committee remark—

> We will gladly undertake the establishment and supervision of a Seminary of the nature contemplated; the object being, to bestow upon the Youths selected for their piety, steadiness, and ability, the highest requisite religious, moral, and intellectual education; while they are trained up, in all other respects, in the same temperate and frugal habits as their humblest brethren. By the systematic pursuance of this plan, we hope, and believe, that it will be found practicable to raise up a body of Catechists and Ministers upon a level with the people, in regard to all their physical wants; while they will possess all the advantages over their countrymen, which knowledge, tempered by a long course of scholastic discipline, can confer.

CALCUTTA.

The work in Calcutta has been steadily carried on at the Mission premises, Mirzapore. It may be said to be fourfold; viz. 1. Ministering to Congregations of Native Christians; 2. Preaching the Gospel, with the view to the conversion of the Heathen; 3. Schools for the instruction of the rising generation of the Native Christians; and, 4. Schools for the instruction of the rising generation of the Native Hindoo and Mahomedan population. In these different departments, the Rev. T. Sandys and the Rev. J. C. Thompson have continued to labour; while the Rev. J. T. Linké has been engaged in the commencement of the formation of the Head Seminary. The Rev. J. J. Hæberlin has, with the consent of the Committee, transferred his labours to the Committee of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

BURDWAN DISTRICT.

The Labourers in this District are, the Rev. Messrs. W. J. Deerr, J. J. Weitbrecht, and H. C. Krückeberg. Of his charge in Burdwan, Mr. Weitbrecht reports:—

My little flock of Native Christians look more like a flock of Christ than ever before. I have lately had the joy to see that the Spirit is at work, particularly in some of the young. A sudden stroke of death by cholera, which removed one of them in the vigour of youth, has made a powerful impression, especially upon his relations. Our moonlight visits also appear to be greatly blessed to them; a greater mutual attachment has been formed between the pastor and the flock; their hearts are more open for spiritual conversation; and family devotion is encouraged and appreciated. Our English School in the town of Burdwan has been increasing every month, and between 70 and 80 are in daily attendance. The Acts, the Epistle to the Romans, and the prophecies of Isaiah, have been read and explained to the first class during the last year—I have reason to believe, with great advantage, to several lads. They are convinced of the truth as it is in Jesus: they hate and despise idols.

While Mr. Weitbrecht was on one of his Missionary excursions, the following circumstances occurred; strongly evincing the honour put upon the Gospel by the more educated and intelligent Natives. He relates:—

Several young people came to get some Tracts; and, to my surprise, two addressed me in good English. "Sir," said one of them, "we are very much gratified to see a Missionary coming to our village. Pray do establish a School here: you know we are living among ignorant people; the pleasure of conversing with a gentleman is therefore additionally great to us." On hearing that I wished to preach the Gospel, they conducted me to a house; which was soon filled with inquisitive hearers, to whom I read and explained a chapter. I began speaking in English; but was requested, for the sake of the numerous bystanders, to go on in Bengalee. Here, again, I saw a confirmation of the fact, that young Hindoos who have had the benefit of an English education almost universally hold the Gospel in great esteem, and acknowledge the religion of their fathers to be a system of wickedness and absurdity. The two young men before mentioned said, "Sir, we have an important work in view: we want to establish an English School at this place; and, that being accomplished, we wish to preach the Truth to the young people; for something of the kind ought to be done among them, to enlighten their minds." I praised their intentions, and promised all my assistance, so far as it could be given by occasional visits, advice, &c. "But WHAT," said I, will you preach?" They answered, "From the Bible." I replied, "May God fit you for the work; and may you be successful! Do by all means begin with a School; and that being established, we will see what can be done."

It is justly remarked, however, by Mr. Deerr, that those Natives who engage in the work of promoting the Gospel are peculiarly exposed to the indignation of their countrymen; frequently more so, in fact, than the Missionaries themselves. Of two Native Catechists thus labouring, he remarks—

These young men, besides the advantage which they have of speaking in their mother tongue, prove to be a testimony against their countrymen. The Heathens feel this; and therefore they usually give vent to their rage upon the Native Christians, while they praise the Missionary for being zealous for the religion of his forefathers: consequently, the Native Christian Brethren have to share the bitterest and greatest part of the reproaches, for having forsaken the faith of their ancestors.

BENARES.

In this vast city, one of the proudest bulwarks of Idolatry and Brahminical Philosophy, the Gospel continues to make a powerful impression. The strong-holds of Satan are manifestly shaking; and the wisdom of this world is disturbed by the foolishness of preaching.

The Rev. J. C. G. Knorpp, describing his visits through the city, states:—

Divine Truth is undermining this strong-hold of idolatry. After an opposing Brahmin had left us, the whole crowd remained, and very attentively heard more of the Word of God; and some took Tracts with them. When I left, one among the crowd said, "Ah, Sir! your Religion is very good, if you would not bring your Jesus into it." Thus is the very name of our blessed Saviour a stumbling-block to many—a sign which shall be spoken against.

The Rev. C. B. Leupolt has particularly interested himself in the work of Education. He relates, concerning the Youths under his charge:—

I call the boys now and then separately to me; listen to their little complaints, if they have any; speak to their hearts, and pray with each alone. Having spoken to a little fellow concerning the Saviour's love, and how willingly He hears children, I asked him whether he ever prayed in private. He replied, "Yes;" and exclaimed, while tears rolled down his little black cheeks, "Par ham se nahin chatta:" literally, "With me it will not go."—"I cannot pray myself," he continued; "but I pray with another boy."—"As I did not quite understand him, I asked for an explanation; when he told me, that several of the boys could not pray themselves; and that they had therefore chosen leaders, that is, certain boys who can pray. These, then, gather the boys around their bedsteads, and pray with them; in the morning as soon as they awake, and in the evening before they go to sleep.

The Rev. W. Smith has also laboured abundantly at this Station; but the Committee regret to add, that he is constrained, by ill health, to retire for a season.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. W. Bowley, labouring at this Station, is frequently engaged in extensive Missionary tours; during which, at Heathen Festivals, and other seasons of great concourse, he avails himself of the opportunity to distribute abundantly copies of the Holy Scriptures and Religious Tracts. By his perfect knowledge of the native language and customs, he is enabled readily to meet the errors of those who oppose him. The following is an instance of his mode of discoursing with the people:—

March 7, 1837—This morning, before setting out, I walked into the market-place; and before an idol temple I opened a conversation with those about it, which led to a Tract "On the Evil of Sin" being read. A crowd collected, and I preached to the people. They behaved very well, and seemed particularly attentive; though not a single Tract was accepted. On the road we went to a Zemindar's, where was an old man apparently above seventy years of age, and two of his sons between forty and fifty-five. The sons were respectful and well-behaved, and manifested inquisitiveness about spiritual things; but the poor old man, though not directly addressed, seeing the sons attentive, gave vent to blasphemies against the Truth; despairing of salvation himself, and determined that none else should be benefitted. He at length bade us depart; which we did, without saying any thing that might further increase his rage, and cause him to add sin to sin. With a heavy heart, I came on, reflecting upon the awful state of these poor creatures—with what a tenacity they hold the truth in unrighteousness! These people are so seldom visited, and consequently know so little of Christianity, and of what our books contain, that it is no easy matter to get them to accept of Tracts, &c.—Yesterday, a Rajah, on seeing me, said he recollected having had an interview with me the year before last, when I offered him these books, which he refused;—and now did so again. A better knowledge of us weakens prejudices very much: hence, we should come the oftener among them. By the side of the road, under a tree, I read and spoke to several; but no books were accepted. About midday we came to Ghorawal. Here there is a thanna, (police-station); and this place is a thoroughfare, both to Chunar, Mirzapore, and other places. In the evening I walked into the bazaar; and on being seated under a peepul-tree, a crowd gathered about me; and two or three argued, till late, respecting the nature and attributes of God, the Creation, Idolatry, the Fall, and salvation through Christ.

GORRUCKPORE.

The Rev. M. Wilkinson reports, that a Church has been built at this Station, capable of containing five hundred persons. His congregation he estimates at 300, of whom two-thirds are Natives. He states, also, that the Christian Seminary, under the charge of the Rev. J. J. Moore, had greatly improved.

AGRA.

This Station has recently been resumed by the Society; one Missionary having been placed in it, and two others being appointed to labour there. It was the interesting scene of the labours of the late venerable Abdool Messeeh, the early convert of Bishop Corrie, and the first Mahomedan admitted to Holy Orders in the Church of England.

The interest which the Lord Bishop of Calcutta continues to take in this Mission is abundantly evinced in various communications received by the Committee. At Benares, he accompanied the Missionaries several times to their Chapels, and took part with them in discussions with opposing Brahmins. On his Lordship's return to Calcutta, he attended the Monthly Evening Prayer-Meeting of the Society, and gave a full report of his inspection of the Society's Missions. Nothing but satisfaction was expressed; and his Lordship confirmed the view long entertained, that the chains of Hindooism are much loosened, and that the education of Youth, on Christian principles, has brought the rising generation into a state of great preparation for the hour when it shall please the Holy Spirit of God to move upon these dark regions.

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

Your Committee, in entering upon their Report of this Mission, have to mingle their sorrows with those of the Christian Church, on occasion of the removal of the beloved Bishop Corrie from the scene of his labours in this Presidency.

They cannot better describe their own feelings, than by adopting the language of the Bishop of Calcutta, when writing to the Society on that mournful occasion. Bishop Wilson remarks:—

But I can enter upon nothing, till I have expressed to you my consternation and grief at the sudden death of my beloved and honoured brother, Bishop Corrie; who was removed from his Church and Diocese by an apoplectic seizure, on Sunday, Feb. 5, after an episcopate of only fifteen brief months. Such are the mysteries of the divine judgments, as to India. Another is now added to the list of Prelates, who, by excessive anxiety and labour, have been prematurely removed from their scenes of usefulness. Corrie was the glory of India—the meekest, gentlest, most heavenly spirit in all our Churches—the man whose experience and devotedness equally elevated him above the mass of his brethren, with the distinguished rank to which he was at length so worthily raised. The Last Great Day will alone disclose all that that dear Bishop has done for the Native and European Population, during thirty years.

On the arrival of this afflicting intelligence, the Committee drew up and recorded a brief Memorial, expressive of their affectionate and grateful remembrance of the great services rendered by Bishop Corrie to the objects of the Society*. At the close of it, they remark—

And the Committee are persuaded, that, short as was the period allotted to the labours of this Servant of God in South India, they have answered a most important end. He arrived at a very critical season; and was enabled, in a wise and gentle manner, to rectify disorders which had crept in, and to diffuse somewhat of his own meek spirit around him. His brief administration will not soon be forgotten; and the Committee cannot but earnestly hope and pray, that it may please the Great Head of the Church to lead those in authority to the appointment of a successor of LIKE MIND with their late revered and beloved friend.

The Committee have the satisfaction to state, that the newly-appointed Bishop of this Diocese, the Right Rev. Dr. Spencer, has expressed his desire to promote, in every practicable way, the objects of the Society in this Presidency.

MADRAS.

The arduous duties of the Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, the Rev. John Tucker, have gradually been increasing. He has, however, through the goodness of God, been sustained with strength equal to his day.

In Madras, as in other parts of India, there is manifested a continually increasing desire for the advantages of education.

* See this Memorial, printed in the Church Missionary Record, Vol. VIII. pp. 139—141.

The late lamented Bishop Corrie, and other Christian friends in the Madras Presidency, were deeply impressed with the paramount importance of giving such a direction to Education, as that it should be Christian both in its basis and its details. With this view, the Bishop took a leading part in the affairs of the School, which has, since his death, received the designation of "Bishop Corrie's Grammar School;" the Committee of which, consisting of members of the Church of England, is, to a certain extent, connected with the Church Missionary Society; its Madras Corresponding Committee being entitled to nominate five members of the School Committee from its own body, and the appointment of Head Master being subject to the confirmation of the Corresponding Committee. The Society is already participating in the benefits of this Institution; several sons of Catechists in the Mission having been placed as scholars in it, by the Corresponding Committee.

The friends with whom the formation of Bishop Corrie's Grammar School originated are solicitous to extend education, on similar principles, throughout the Presidency. Mr. Tucker thus appeals to British Christians for aid in furtherance of this important object. He writes:—

> We want Christian Schoolmasters from Europe—young men of decided piety, of good temper, energy of character, and moderate attainments, who may commence with the very elements of education, and establish schools upon avowedly Christian principles, and in conformity with the Church of England; receiving Heathen, Romish, and any other boys, on those conditions; and educating them, not to be Catechists, but for any profession, until they are fifteen years of age, or thereabouts. In these schools they should learn Tamul and Teloogoo, English Grammar, Ciphering, the Elements of History, Geography, and Astronomy; and, above all, they should receive a sound and thorough religious education. The native languages would be taught by a Moonshee in the school; and consequently in the presence of the Master.

The subject of Education, with a more special view to the purposes of the Mission, has likewise engaged much of the attention of the Corresponding Committee; and they have reported to the Parent Committee their views concerning the re-opening the Society's Institution in Madras, for training Native Teachers for the Mission, with several hopeful Youths. This prospect has afforded strong satisfaction to the Committee. They have therefore assigned the Rev. Joseph Henry Gray, and Mr. James J. H. Elouis, to this important department of labour.

In reference to the exercise of the Ministry, and the superintendence of the Mission Schools in the Villages near Madras this Station has been, with but little exception, deprived of regular superintendence. The Rev. W. Taylor—now in connexion with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel—had, nevertheless, with the greatest kindness and readiness, rendered his assistance in attending to the spiritual wants of the people, so far as his other avocations and health and strength would allow, by undertaking the Lord's-Day Morning English Service at Trinity Chapel, by examining the Candidates for Baptism, and administering that Sacrament, and by monthly visits to the Christian villages in the country.

TINNEVELLY.

It is with pain that your Committee state, in reference to this once-flourishing Mission, that the effects of the former troubles are still bitterly felt. Envying, and strife, having entered, they have been followed by confusion, and every evil work.

The Missionaries in the district of Palamcottah, viz. the Rev. Messrs. Pettitt, Harley, Thomas, Dent, and Devasagayam, were, however, enabled to report, that, during the half year ending September 15, 1837, they had had "rather less difficulty, and disturbance from division, and its miserable consequences." They add, in reference to the progress of Education:—

Our Schools continue to make as good progress as usual; and there is no difficulty in extending them on every side. Although we not only teach Christian books, but make the instruction decidedly Religious, we have many applications from heathen villages for the establishment of schools, and very frequently by the village authorities themselves.

The Rev. C. Blackman, appointed during the past year to the district of Satankoollam, reports concerning it—

During the time that I have had charge of this division of the Mission, nearly 200 souls have been added to the congregations, from heathenism. The greater part of the persons who have put themselves under instruction is included in three villages, formerly entirely heathen. In one of them, the inhabitants have converted their small devil temple into a School-room, and have built a Prayer-house. In another, they have built a neat little Church, chiefly at their own expense. In Velaithapooram they pulled down the devil temple; and put up a shed with the materials, to be used as a Prayer-house. We hardly need say, that whole villages are not at once truly converted to God; and that every man who has joined the Mission does not at once renounce all the superstitions in which he has been brought up, and which have grown with his growth, and strengthened with his strength. The remains of superstition, pride, and selfishness very frequently lead the people to transgress the Scriptural rule, which they have engaged themselves to observe. These evils, which are the effects of a depraved nature strengthened by habit, are subdued, in a measure, in many cases; but they can be eradicated by divine power only, accompanying the doctrines of the Gospel which are enforced, and the discipline which is exercised.

MAYAVERAM.

This interesting and important Station is at present unprovided with a Missionary. The Committee had hoped that their desire of supplying its wants was accomplished, in the appointment of the Rev. T. H. Applegate to labour here. He had, however, not long been at this Station, when ill health occasioned his departure from it, which was soon followed by his death.

Two Native Catechists have continually taught at this Station; and, it is hoped, not without some fruit of their labours. The Journals of one of them, Devaperasaden, show that the work of making known the Gospel to his countrymen has never wholly ceased *.

COTTAYAM.

The Mission at this Station is one of a peculiar nature: for while many entire families in the Syrian Church perceive the errors and corruptions prevailing in their Communion, the difficulty is great of promoting a sound revival of Religion; and yet at the same time so directing the course of proceedings, as not to interfere with the integrity of that ancient Church.

It is by the distribution of the Holy Scriptures, and the adoption of Scriptural measures, that the Committee trust, through the help of the Spirit, to promote the important object of the improvement of the Syrian Church: and that their labours are not without success, continues to be evident.

The Rev. B. Bailey, who has translated the Scriptures into Malayalim, remarks—

> I trust we can say, that the work of the Lord is in progress among the people around, and those connected with us. There has been, for some time back, a considerable excitement, in the minds of many, on the subject of Religion, and great demand for the Sacred Scriptures. So far as I can learn, those portions of the Sacred Volume which we have it in our power to distribute are diligently read by many, with a sincere desire to know the Truth.

It is reported, in reference to the Syrian College, that the total number of Deacons and Lay Boys taught, was 47. The following branches of study are pursued by them: Divinity,

* See Extracts from these Journals, in the Church Missionary Record, Vol. IX. pp. 102—106.

Mathematics, Elements of Astronomy, Geography, Syriac, Sanscrit, Malayalim, and English Grammar. In English, the Histories of India and Rome.

ALLEPIE.

This Mission has continued under the charge of the Rev. T. Norton, assisted by his two sons; but he has, during the past year, suffered the great loss of his valued partner. An interesting account of the Female Schools, under the care of Mrs. Norton, has been printed since her death*. Mr. Norton reports the number of his congregation to be 454. He also gives the following particulars of his other departments of labour, at the commencement of 1837:—

Our Seminaries have gone on as usual. Respecting the boys, it is my daily prayer that I may see them partakers of soul-quickening grace. I sometimes hope that I do see something of the dawnings of it; but it requires time to judge correctly of the native character, in these matters.

Of Village Schools there are five; containing 158 children. The difficulties of keeping up regular attendance are great. The great desideratum is that of GOOD Masters, who would maintain their authority with their pupils, and, by uniformly strict, and at the same time mild discipline, command their respect. However, several of the children do make encouraging progress in reading; by which they become acquainted w th the Word of God, which is able to make them wise unto salvation: and by taking the Scriptures home, we may hope they will be blessed to members of their families.

Our Tract Association, during the year, has issued 34,600 Tracts, and printed 25,000. They are assiduously sought, and eagerly read; and direct the minds of many to listen to the Gospel of Christ, of which we know that it is said, It shall not return void, but shall accomplish that for which it is sent.

Mr. Norton reports, generally, of his congregation, that "they are desirous of walking according to the Gospel; and that there is no one family, or individual among them, that in any way practises heathen ceremonies; but that, on the contrary, they are wholly weaned from them, and, as Christians, opposed to them. As a body, they are advancing in Scripture knowledge: many of them maintain the practice of daily family worship."

COCHIN.

The labours of the Rev. S. Ridsdale at this Station appear to have been peculiarly blessed among the Roman Catholics;

* See Church Missionary Record, Vol. IX. pp. 135—137. An affecting Obituary of Mrs. Norton may be seen also at pp. 93—95 of the same volume.

many of whom have turned Protestants, having had Bibles by them unknown to their priests. They have, in consequence, suffered much ill treatment from their countrymen.

The Committee regret to add, that the health of Mr. and Mrs. Ridsdale has been such, as to require their quitting their Station for a temporary return to this country.

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of Bombay having visited this country with a view to his consecration, the Committee had the satisfaction of hearing personally, from his Lordship, of the good success and favourable prospects of the Society's Mission in that Presidency.

The four Missionaries stationed at Nassuck, the Rev. Messrs. Farrar, Dixon, Mengé, and Warth, have continued their labours, in preaching, translations, journeying, and conducting Christian Schools.

In the last Report, the attempt of the Chief Council of the Brahmins to put down the schools of the Missionaries was noticed. Not only did their plans fail; but many of them have become in some measure conciliated. Mr. Farrar writes, Sept. 27, 1836—

> Last year, at this time, the Brahmins were all up in arms, to destroy the Mission, root and branch; and they publicly anathematized any individual who dared to approach the Missionary. This evening, about fifty of the most respectable Brahmins, and others, of the place, visited and passed the evening with me. Among them was one of my veteran opponents in the Brahminical Council.

During the month of November 1836, Mr. Farrar went on a Missionary tour, in the direction of Aurungabad. Mr. Mengé describes his labours during that period, as follows:—

> The scholars of the English Seminary are entrusted to my care. I spend, therefore, daily one or two hours in instructing and examining them in various branches of knowledge; especially Religion, Natural Philosophy, English Grammar, Geography, Orthography, &c. Besides this, they attempt weekly a small essay on various subjects. I also give them a short sketch of the History of the Church of Christ. Two or three seem to enter with interest and feeling into the Scriptural Doctrines. Wherever I find opportunities, when they visit me, or when they take a walk together, I endeavour to press upon their minds the truth of the Unity of God, whose glorious attributes we behold in nature, and whose infinite mercy we see in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Mrs. Farrar remarks, concerning the good abilities and dispositions of the Females educated by her—

About twenty of the girls are committing to memory that beautiful epitome of Christian Morals contained in chap. v. vi. vii. of St. Matthew. May it be impressed upon their hearts as perfectly as it is upon their memories! and may their whole spirit and tempers be moulded according to its divine precepts! To-day, I asked a girl what she thought was meant by the expression, Your Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward you openly. She replied, that it was an allusion to the Day of Judgment. This, I think, was entirely her own apprehension of the passage. I asked, again, How we might lay up treasure in heaven. One said, "By believing": another said, "By prayer": another, "By serving God."

The advantage possessed by Mrs. Farrar in visiting the females is diligently used by her. She thus describes one, out of her many visits to them :—

Sept. 16, 1836—Last night I resumed my visits to Chemee's house; which have been of late, in a great measure, suspended, on account of the rains. About half-a-dozen women sat down with me; and there were, besides, several comers and goers, and listeners outside. The women began complaining of their hard condition, and of the continual drudgery to which they were doomed. This furnished me with an opportunity of telling them, that, however busy they might be, they must not allow their whole hearts and thoughts to be engrossed with worldly things;—that they must think of dying, and of what would come after death. They said, How should they know any thing of God, or His way; that all that the Brahmins taught them was, "Give us a present of money." In the simplest language I could think of, I told them of a heavenly inheritance; of God's infinite mercy; of Jesus Christ, who gave His life to obtain remission of our sins. Hearing of these better hopes, they said that they should like to know more of my God, and of this way. I told them that the Missionaries proclaimed it daily, in the bazaars, and by the way-side. "True," said they, "and men stand by and listen; but we cannot." I replied, that I was most desirous of teaching them this way; that they might come to me whenever they chose; and that I also would come to them. They promised to assemble again next Friday: and asked me to come at an earlier hour, when they would be at leisure.

In reference to Scriptural and Liturgical Translations, it is stated by the Corresponding Committee at Bombay, that 2000 copies of the first fifty-five Psalms, the translation of which, by Mr. Farrar, into Mahratta metre was completed in January 1836, have been lithographed, and partly distributed to the Schools in Nassuck. The Mahratta Liturgy likewise, by Mr. Dixon, has been put into circulation.

The collateral benefits resulting from the establishment of a Mission near, or in the midst of, Europeans resident in heathen lands are worthy to be noticed: for though the heathen are the main object of Missionary labours, yet without them many an Englishman would be left almost destitute of the means of grace, and become forgetful of the religious privileges of his native land. This topic is feelingly adverted to by Mr. Warth, in the following remarks:—

It makes a very sad impression upon a new comer, to see, all around, not the least mark of the Lord's Day;—every thing going on as usual. These poor people have no day of sacred rest, of joy, of prayer: no bells call them to the House of God: they are never reminded of their spiritual wants, and their duties toward their Creator; and it often, on a fine Lord's-Day Morning, looks as if Nature lost her beauty at the profanation of this day. Though, in theory, I had not been altogether a stranger to the character of idolatry, yet I had no idea of the effect it has upon the mind, to live among idolaters; and I must confess, that but for the purpose of teaching them a better way, the way of Truth, I should not venture to live among them. I can now understand why Europeans, living without a vital principle in the midst of an idolatrous community, are so apt to become downright infidels.

The Committee are taking measures for establishing, in Bombay, an Institution similar to those already referred to at Calcutta and Madras; for the purpose of giving a superior education to such young Natives as shall be found suitable for encouragement as Labourers in the Mission. The School-fund, raised as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Robert Money, Esq., having been placed under the direction of your Committee, they have considered it as presenting a suitable opening for the commencement of such an Institution; and the Rev. G. M. Valentine, who proceeded from this country last March, has been appointed to the Station of Bombay, with a view to adopt the measures requisite to this end. Another individual, Mr. Robertson, is likewise set apart for this Station, to assist in this important object.

In reference to India generally, your Committee have further to state, that they have during the past year seen it to be their duty to present Memorials to the President of the Board of Control, and the Hon. the East-India Company; following up their former petitions relative to the Pilgrim-Tax. These Memorials were accompanied by Letters from the Right Hon. the President: the reply to which has been, that the subject has engaged, and continues to engage, the constant attention of the Directors.

CEYLON MISSION.

The Labourers at the four Stations in this Mission, although diminished in number and in strength by absences and sickness, yet continue to pursue their work with faith and patience. It has been the happiness of this Mission to enjoy, from its commencement, now twenty years ago, a character of union and concord. At their Annual Meeting in September 1837, this blessing was anew vouchsafed to them. The Chairman of that Meeting writes: — "I rejoice to state, that our Heavenly Father has been again pleased to smile on us, and to continue to bless us with the spirit of unity and brotherly love."

COTTA.

At this Station, the Rev. Joseph Bailey has charge of the general business of the Mission, while also engaged in the work of the Ministry. The Rev. J. Selkirk, besides his ministerial labours, is employed in the duties of the Institution.

In reference to the Ministry, they report, that, in connexion with this Station, there are eighteen places where they have congregations. The number of persons attending them is 700.

In the Institution are eighteen Youths, who are going through the usual course of instruction. The English Themes written by the Youths who receive education here show their attainments in religious knowledge and composition.

The total number of children, of both sexes, connected with this Station, is 714; being an increase, in the last year, of 113.

It is particularly remarked by the Missionaries, in their report concerning Female Education—

The general conduct of the girls, and the number of lessons and answers given by them at the end of every month, are very satisfactory. During the year, no girl has been dismissed from the school, either for bad behaviour, theft, or idleness;—faults, of which we have before had to complain.

The number of the Scriptures, or portions of the Scriptures, Prayer-books, School-books, and Tracts, issued from the Press, has been 10,400.

KANDY.

The health of the Rev. T. Browning continues to suffer so much, that his return to England for a season has become necessary. In the mean time, the Rev. W. Oakley has been studying the Singhalese language; which he has attained sufficiently to perform Divine Service in it. They report of their Ministerial labours—

The duties of the Ministry have been regularly attended to, so far as our health has permitted. Since Mr. Oakley has been able to read the Service in Singhalese, we have taken both that and the English alternately; one reading Prayers, and the other preaching. By this arrangement, we are both at liberty to conduct an early Morning Service on the Lord's Day.

In the congregations attending these Services, they preached for the Church Missionary Society; and collected, after the English sermon, 2*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*; and after the Singhalese sermon, 1*l.* 17*s.* 7½*d.*

Having observed, that, from want of superintendence, hundreds of nominally Christian families were in danger of relapsing into total Heathenism, they adopted, during the last year, a plan of effective visitation of the whole town. In this laborious work they met with some opposition; but in general, with much encouragement. They report—

To render our plan of visiting still more effectual, we have thought it desirable to divide the town into districts; appointing to each district two Labourers; either two Catechists, or a Catechist and a Schoolmaster. One of our communicants, in no way connected with the Mission, has already come forward, and offered his assistance in this work. His services having been accepted, he is now labouring with one of the Catechists. By this plan, each district will be visited, at least three or four times in the year, by those appointed to labour in the several districts; and, in addition to this, the whole town will, D.V., be visited by one of us about twice a year.

BADDAGAME.

The Rev. G. C. Trimnell has, during the past year, laboured alone at this Station. In addition to his Ministerial duties at the Station, he preaches, on two days in the week, in one or other of the Village Schools, taking them in rotation. He also reports:—

On Wednesdays I have a congregation of Beggars; to whom I do not deliver a written or studied address, but warn, exhort, and encourage them by plain and familiar conversation. There are none to whom I minister, of whom I have greater hope than of some of these, that I shall hereafter meet them around the throne of God, ascribing honour and glory unto the Lamb, and praising God for that poverty which was the occasion of bringing them so frequently under the sound of His blessed Gospel.

With regard to the decreasing influence of Idolatry on the Young who are receiving Christian Education, Mr. Trimnell thus states his opinion:—

We doubt not that idolatry and heathenish superstition have by no means that hold on THEM which they have on their parents; if they have any hold on them at all. We have reason to believe that none of the elder girls have gone to idol temples, or Bana Maduwas, during the year; though some of the younger ones, we know, have been taken to such places by their parents.

NELLORE.

The Rev. Messrs. Knight and Adley, in reporting their labours at this Station to the Annual Meeting, remark—

We direct your attention to the Seminary; which, after many years' experience, we consider to be one of the most efficient means to establish and continue the Redeemer's kingdom in India. Since its establishment in 1823, one hundred Youths have been educated in it. It was stated, in the last Report, that about one-third of the number had been hopefully converted to Christianity, and admitted to the Church. And few, if indeed any one of the others, have left the Station without expressing their firm belief in Christianity as the true Religion; and many expressing the hope that difficulties would be removed, and they be enabled to give themselves to it.

Mr. Knight, who presided in the Annual Meeting already referred to, gives the following general view of the state of this Mission:—

The Correspondence and Reports of the Brethren, which came before us, show that, at all the Society's Stations, active, energetic, and efficient means are employed, well calculated, by the divine blessing, to promote the objects in view. One of the most interesting and hopeful features of the Mission, doubtless, is the increasing knowledge, experience, and stability of the Native Agents employed in the work. The number of Catechists, Probationary Catechists, and other Pious Natives, now labouring at the different Stations, coming into close and daily contact with their countrymen—intimately acquainted with their views, prejudices, habits, and manners—and exhibiting in their life, as well as by their public instructions, the reality and superiority of Christianity, afford much ground for hope and encouragement. By them, if faithful, may be effected, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, what we can never expect to see from our own efforts.

CHINA MISSION.

The departure of Mr. E. B. Squire and Mrs. Squire from Calcutta, for Singapore, was stated in the last Report. They have since arrived; and Mr. Squire has commenced the study of the Chinese and Malay languages, and the correspondence with surrounding parts, requisite to his commencing this Mission. Having been authorised by the Lord Bishop of Calcutta to perform such Religious Services at Singapore as might be consistent with his lay character, he has also had the opportunity of interesting the Europeans, and others resident there, in the cause of the Church Missionary Society.

The systematic opposition of the Chinese Government to the introduction of Christianity into the empire presents a formidable obstacle to this Mission. Fully contemplating this, the Society were nevertheless anxious, in commencing it, that their Agent should be near the spot, to seek, and if possible to create, opportunities, whereby the Gospel might be proclaimed in that immense empire, wholly given to idolatry. The requisite preliminary studies, and other engagements of Mr. Squire, have hitherto prevented him from entering upon any exploratory tour; but this, as soon as it can be attempted, is one leading object in the Society's plans. Mr. Squire concludes his last Letter with the earnest appeal—"Remember forlorn China, with its millions; and pray also for us who are engaged in the great work!" *

* For further accounts of this Mission, see the Church Missionary Record for 1837, pp. 153—156, and 263, 264.

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

NEW HOLLAND.

SINCE the last Report, a blessing has continued to attend the labours of the Missionaries. The Rev. Messrs. Watson and Günther are stationed at Wellington Valley, and the Rev. J. C. S. Handt at Moreton Bay. A further Government grant of land, referred to in the last Report, will be put under cultivation, by an Agricultural Assistant, Mr. W. Porter, who was sent out by the Society at the commencement of this year.

The difficulties attendant on this Mission to the Aborigines are peculiarly great; owing to the scattered state and ignorant character of the Natives themselves, whose disadvantages are yet more aggravated by the deplorably immoral state of the Settlers. Yet, notwithstanding all the hindrances and hardships experienced, the Missionaries report that they can discern both moral and spiritual benefits derived by the Natives from their labours among them. They are frequently visited, at Wellington Valley, by many from the surrounding Tribes.—The Vocabulary in the Native Language has been again revised, and considerably enlarged. The Gospel of St. Matthew, and almost the whole of the Morning and Evening Services of our Church, have been translated into the language of the Aborigines; and in this language, Divine Service is performed every Lord's Day. The Missionaries have had, at different times, more than 100 Natives under their care and instruction. Several have learned to read the Holy Scriptures, to regard Worship, and to present their morning and evening supplications to the God of all grace.*

NEW-ZEALAND MISSION.

The Labourers in this increasingly important Mission have been much troubled, of late, by various circumstances. More especially in the Stations at the Bay of Islands, they were, during the former half of 1837, harassed by a war between two principal Chiefs. At the close of this trying period, the Secretary of the Northern District of the Mission writes:—

I am happy to say that we are again at peace on all sides. The Natives seem heartily tired of a war, which, in every respect, was only productive of misery and expense.

The suspension of nearly all the Stations in the Southern District, and the dispersion of the Missionaries in consequence of the outburst of war in the South, in the autumn of 1836, were reported last year.

By the latest intelligence, however, dated December 6, 1837, it appears that three of the Missionary Labourers were about to return, with their families, southward, to their Station at Tauranga.

In the midst of all these distracting circumstances, there is clear evidence of the fact, that the Gospel has been gaining a mighty influence over very many, among both the Chiefs and the Natives generally. The civilizing tendency of Christianity is rendered peculiarly manifest from the marked contrast existing between the war of the Natives in the Northern District in 1837, and that in the Southern District in 1836. In the Northern District, where the Missionaries have longest dwelt and laboured, there were no CHRISTIAN Chiefs found to participate in the war; and even some of the Heathen Chiefs refused to join. Natives themselves co-operated to put a stop to the war; while the most cruel aggravation and protraction of it may be traced to miscreant Europeans, who, not fewer in number than 150, mingled in the tumultuous garrisons and ranks of the Natives, inflaming their passions by the grossest intemperance and profligacy. Not more than fifty perished, during a warfare of several months; and when the war terminated, it was not succeeded by any acts of cannibalism; and in the arrangements for restitution, the ancient sanguinary principle of life for life was exchanged for payment in land. So far had the Gospel humanized and blessed the Northern District! Whereas in the Southern, where the Missionaries had but just began to settle themselves, as soon as war burst out, it was universal and indiscriminating; none of the leading Natives interposed to arrest its progress; the carnage amounted to not fewer than 500, and was succeeded by horrific scenes of cannibalism, such as have never before been narrated by the Missionaries. Truly it may be said, contrasting these two Districts—"See what man is without the Gospel!—and see what he is, when permanently visited by the Ministers of Christ!" Nay, more —"See how the work of the Gospel, after it has gained some influence, may yet be thrown back, by the presence of those who are Christians only in name, but worse than Heathen in character!" To this it may be added, when contemplating the peace, and even the abounding consolations, enjoyed by the Missionaries in the midst of these afflicting scenes, "See what the Saviour can do for His labouring and suffering Servants!" The language of these faithful men might be—In the day when I cried, thou heardest me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of Australia has, at the request of the Parent Committee, undertaken to visit the Mission in New Zealand. His Lordship, on acceding, though with much personal inconvenience, to this request, writes as follows:—"I will do whatever in me lies, through God helping me, to maintain the Church of New Zealand in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship. It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things, which proves them to belong, not only to a Missionary, but also to a Church Society."—His Lordship having further stated his views as to the principle on which he should visit a Church not within his Diocese, adds—"I should wish to be understood as making the best provision which our circumstances permit, and which can be made without irregularity, until, in God's own appointed time, that infant and struggling Church may be brought, under its own proper Superior, to a full participation in the Ordinances of the Christian Ministry."

His Lordship had also appointed Lord's Day, December 24, as the occasion of making Collections, after Sermons preached in the several Churches, on behalf of the Church Missionary Society.

The Committee have received intelligence of the arrival in New Zealand of the Surgeon reported as sent out last year. At the time of his arrival, the Natives were extensively suffering from the Influenza: many died, and the people were, in general, very dispirited and desponding. By the blessing of God on the means used, the population, which was beginning to pine away, speedily recovered; and after a little time, on the Surgeon's seeking his patients in their dwellings, they had nearly all disappeared, having gone to their plantations to work. He had had, in the course of six weeks, at least 800 Natives under his care.

One of the most interesting circumstances relative to this Mission, has been the visit recently paid to New Zealand by the Rev. Samuel Marsden. This honoured veteran in the cause of Missions, then in his 73d year, promptly went over, to cheer and assist the Missionaries under their many trials. On his arrival, hundreds of the Natives flocked around him; delighted once more to see the man who, forty years ago, had adopted this Island in his affections, and during all that period had been in every way seeking their temporal and spiritual benefit. One Chief, unable to come at him on account of the crowds daily surrounding him at his first place of landing, followed him forty miles across the country, for the purpose of having more quiet religious conversation. Upward of seventy more accompanied him on this journey. On another occasion, Natives sitting with him to a somewhat late hour in the evening, and being requested to retire, excused themselves by saying that they wished to have a very long, stedfast look at the old man, because he could not live long enough to visit them again. The Missionaries themselves were greatly comforted by this visit; and one of them, in whose house he dwelt for some days, expresses "how great a privilege he felt it to be, to hear an old believer pray."

The following epitome of some of the chief points of labour will show the employment of the Missionaries and Catechists at the different Stations.

Northern Stations.

Tepuna.

Mr. J. King, the oldest Labourer in the Mission, reports—

The Lord's-Day Services have been regularly held, and the Natives visited at their villages. Some of them assemble to Morning and Evening Prayer, read the Scriptures, and catechize each other during the week-days; which helps to restrain and subdue their former bad habits, and to prepare their minds to hear the Word with profit. They are slow in their improvement; being so very ignorant of themselves, of God, of sin, of holiness, and many things pertaining to this life, that it is difficult to impress their minds with just ideas on spiritual subjects. While endeavouring to show them their state as sinners, and the way of salvation as figuratively pointed out in the Parables, they will often form very wrong ideas upon the subject. They need line upon line, and constant care and attention, to direct aright those who are seeking to know the Truth. It requires as much patient continuance in well-doing, in order to spread the Gospel among the Heathen, as ever it did; and we are assured that we shall reap, if we faint not.

Mr. King further remarks, with great truth and judgment—

To raise a barbarous nation to a state of civilization, is not the work of twenty, neither of forty years, with the slender means which have been employed. The Europeans living here, hinder, rather than forward, the work; and what could the Missionaries have done, had not their weapons been mighty through God to the pulling down of the strong-holds of sin and Satan? It was by dint of labour and exertion that this Mission was begun and carried on; and it requires the same to continue its operations.

Kerikeri.

It is reported of this Station—

Mr. Kemp has had the charge of the Boys' School in the Settlement, and the general oversight of the work on the store, the carpentering of which is now completed: he has also attended to the Natives under his care, planting a small portion of land with potatoes, and bartering for the Settlement. The above duties, with visiting the Natives at Toheranui, Takou, Waiaua, Matauri, Wainui, and Wangaroa, to impart to them religious instruction, have occupied his time. Mr. Shepherd has had the duties of the public store to attend to; which duties have required, and will require, a great part of the native assistance in the Settlement, in landing and shipping the stores for the different Stations in the Mission. Mr. Shepherd's Natives have also planted a small portion of land with potatoes. These duties, with his visiting the Natives at the above places, and the translating of Malachi, Jonah, and the Book of Ruth, and completing a revision of St. Matthew's Gospel, have occupied his time for the past year.

The successful attention paid to Out-Station duties is thus more particularly described:—

The spiritual instruction of the Natives in the Settlement, at Toheranui, Takou, Waiaua, Matauri, Wainui, and Wangaroa, has been attended to by Messrs. Kemp and Shepherd; but, owing to the great distance, and the secular duties connected with the Kerikeri Station, the Natives cannot be so regularly visited as we could wish. We have, however, cause of thankfulness to our Heavenly Father, that a work of grace is going on, we trust, in the souls of some of the Natives at the above places. At three of those places, Divine Service is regularly held by Christian Natives on the Lord's Day; when a good number attend the Services. At the same places, many of the Natives, both old and young, devote a portion of their time to school; and many have learned to write, and to read the Scriptures; and have committed to memory most of the Catechisms.

Paihía.

The duties and condition of this Station are thus reported:—

General good health has been granted to all the members of this Station; and the arms of Everlasting Love have been around us, to protect us. The Church at Kororarika has been erected during the year: it will, however, require much to be done to it, before it is completed. We have held Service in the Church, both with Europeans and Natives. The attendance, though not large, is on the increase; and we cannot refrain from expressing a strong hope that the erection of this building will prove a great blessing to the community at large, in the Bay of Islands. At the Kauakaua, a good commodious Chapel has been erected during the year: it is not yet completed. The congregations here have been large, and regular in their attendance: the Means of Grace have been well appreciated by many. As a community of Christians, they give good proof of their sincerity. We trust that they are growing in grace, as well as in divine knowledge.

Waimate.

The Religious condition of this Station, and the neighbouring parts, is thus described by the Rev. W. Williams:—

In those districts where there is any profession of Christianity, there is a larger proportion of the inhabitants to be found in the House of God than in most Christian countries. Still, it must be allowed that there is a lamentable ignorance of Scripture truth in those who profess the Religion of Christ. An attempt has been made to remedy this evil, by the institution of Bible Classes; which give an opportunity for more familiar explanation, which is gladly embraced by many.

Kaitaia.

The Labourers at this Station, situated to the North of the Island, report:—

We have to acknowledge the merciful dealings of our Heavenly Father toward us, in having continued us in health and strength, and preserved us and the Settlement from every outward evil. The Native Tribes which surround us have dwelt in peace during the past year; and, with few exceptions, are rejoiced to have us visit and hold Divine Service with them on Lord's Days. The chief scene of our labours on the Lord's Day has been at Waro; the Lord having opened the way for us to that populous district. We have there an attentive congregation, of from 70 to 120: and this is all we can say of that place, at present. The other villages around us we have endeavoured to supply to the best of our ability, by occasionally visiting them ourselves, and appointing some of our Baptized Natives to hold Divine Service there on Lord's Days.

With regard to our Settlement Natives, and those who are living near us, we have reason to hope that many of their hearts have been touched by Divine Grace. Our Chapel has been well attended; indeed so thronged, that we were obliged to desert our old rush building, and build another twice as large. It is a custom with many of the Natives of the surrounding villages to come to our Settlement on the Saturday evening, so that they may enjoy the whole Services of the Lord's Day.

The schools for native men and boys have been attended to, as usual, by Mr. Matthews. The Girls' and Infant Schools have been alternately conducted by Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Puckey.

Southern Stations.

The accounts of these Stations are from reports made at or near Midsummer 1836—the period when war was laying waste the regions in the midst of which, or near which, the Missionaries were labouring.

Puriri.

The degree of progress made in Christian Education is thus described in May 1836:—

A few days ago we had our Puriri School Examination; the first since we have been here: a Branch School from Kopu also attended. The Infant School has made good progress: the average attendance has, of late, been about thirty; ten of whom can read fluently. The Boys' School is advancing: some among them write a good hand, and are getting on in their tables and arithmetic: most of them know all the Catechism. A few prizes were given; such as, slates, pencils, Catechisms, and Tracts.

While all the Southern Stations suffered great interruptions, Puriri, being most to the North of these five Stations, suffered the least.

Mangapouri.

Having reported, in general, favourably of the progress of their work at this Station, the Labourers add, concerning the Out-Stations, which were begining to be formed—

The numerous villages around us have been visited, as often as circumstances would allow, by ourselves, and by Baptized Natives. There are a few, in several villages which have been visited regularly, who know something of the Catechisms, and assemble in the morning and evening for prayer. At Otawao, a congregation of 200 regularly assembles for Service on the Lord's Day; which has been conducted by Messrs. Hamlin and Stack; and, in their absence, by a Baptized Native. Many in this congregation know the first two Catechisms; and about eighteen have so far learned to read, as to be able to make out those portions of the Scripture which have been translated.

Matamata.

It is reported of this Station—

Three Schools have been established, for boys, girls, and infants. About twenty in these schools have been taught to read the words of Eternal Life. The Catechisms have been committed to memory by about 100 Natives, and many have been taught to read and sew. The Services held in the Station have been on Lord's Days, morning and evening, and on Tuesday and Thursday Evenings; and a meeting for private Religious Instruction is held on Monday and Friday Evenings.

Rotorua.

This Station was burnt to the ground, in the war, on August 9, 1836. The progress which had been previously made in introducing Christianity was so small, as not to deserve mentioning. It seems as though the heaviest measure of suffering had fallen upon the most unprofitable of the Stations. It is stated concerning it—

Of any spiritual improvement among the Rotorua Natives, nothing whatever can be reported. A visit was paid to five of the six Pas on Rotorua Lake, shortly before the expected war took its most serious aspect, for the express purpose of knowing whether the residents there really would build themselves a house that would answer for a Chapel and School-room. Four of the five willingly consented: the other was quite indifferent.

Tauranga.

The following is stated to have been the condition of this Station when the war broke out, in 1836—

This Station, which was formed in August 1835, continued to advance till March last; when war, with all its associated ills, bursting out among the various surrounding tribes, at once severely checked the progress of this Settlement. Our Schools, though not numerously attended, were regular, till the taking of Maketu: after which period it became no longer prudent to detain Natives living on the Settlement. The general attendance of Natives at the Pas on the Lord's Days has been good.

The Press.

To the preceding account of the Stations your Committee add the Report of a very important department of the Society's labours in New Zealand—the operations of the Press. The Printer reports, under date of June 30, 1837—

During the last six months I have been engaged as follows: Printing—compositing and printing the New Testament, demy 8vo., 5000 copies; advanced as far as 1 Cor. xiv. 10:—compositing New-Zealand Grammar, in English, demy 12mo., first half-sheet 12 pages. Binding—37 Native Scriptures, and Prayer-Books, for Natives.

Your Committee have been accustomed to present to the Meeting various instances of the spiritual effects produced on the minds of the Natives by the introduction of the Gospel among them. They would on the present occasion select a single instance, in which is depicted the blessed influence of Religion, at a time, and under circumstances, the most deeply trying to the feelings of human nature. The Rev. A. N. Brown, labouring at one of the Southern Stations, relates, that upon the breaking out of the war at Rotorua, it was determined by the Missionaries to remove a small School of Native Children to a distant Station. The company, consisting of twenty-one Natives, were overtaken during the night by a hostile party. Favoured by the darkness, they all, except one little girl, Tarore, escaped, and hid themselves in the fern and woods. The father of this little girl, Ngakuku, was one of the company, and escaped with a little boy, his only son; but the daughter was seized, and murdered on the spot. Her remains were afterward recovered, and, upon the arrival of the party at a place of safety, were committed to the grave.

The Rev. A. N. Brown thus describes the scene at the funeral:—

I buried poor Tarore at the Pa. Those who so narrowly escaped a like death, followed the corpse to the grave; around which were arranged various groups, from the different Native residences. After singing a hymn, and addressing the assembled party, Ngakuku asked me if he might also say a few words: and on my assenting, he said, with deep solemnity of feeling—"There lies my child: she has been murdered, as a payment for your bad conduct. But do not you rise to seek a payment for her: God will do that. Let this be the finishing of the war with Rotorua: now let peace be made. My heart is not dark for Tarore, but for you. You urged Teachers to come to you. They came; and now you are driving them away. You are crying for my girl. I am crying for you—for myself—for all of us. Perhaps this murder is a sign of God's anger toward us, for our sins. Turn to Him. Believe, or you will perish."

Mr. Brown adds to this affecting narrative:—

Can I doubt WHO it is that has given calmness, resignation, and peace to this poor Native, at a time when we could expect little else than the wild tumult of unsubdued grief? Let those who treat the operations of the Holy Spirit upon the heart as an idle fable, account, on natural principles, for the scene which I have this day been privileged to witness. It was not insensibility on the part of Ngakuku, for his feelings are naturally keen: it was not indifference toward his family, for he was fondly attached to his child. No: it was the manifestation of His power, who, amidst the loudest howlings of the wildest storm, distinctly whispers to His children—It is I, be not afraid: peace, be still!

Your Committee cannot close their report of this Mission, without adverting to the peculiar situation of New Zealand, as it is now regarded by the public at large. What events may await this fair portion of the globe—whether England will regard with a sisterly eye so beautiful an Island, placed, like herself, in a commanding position, well harboured, well wooded, and fertile in resources—whether this country will so stretch forth a friendly and vigorous arm, as that New Zealand may, with her native population, adorn the page of future history, as an industrious, well-ordered, and Christian Nation—it is not for the Committee of the Church Missionary Society to anticipate. But this consolation they do possess—they know that this Society has, for twenty years, done good to the Natives, HOPING FOR NOTHING AGAIN—nothing, save the delight of promoting glory to God, and good-will among men. The Society has sent them heralds of peace, and messengers of salvation: and has thus contracted such an obligation toward those whom it has sought to benefit, that your Committee are constrained to lift up their voice on behalf of that Island; and to claim, that no measures shall be adopted toward that interesting country which would involve any violation of the principles of justice on our part, or of the rights and liberties of the Natives of New Zealand *.

WEST-INDIES' MISSION.

During the past year, the Society has received from Government a further grant of 1000*l.* toward the promotion of Negro Education: and your Committee have, in consequence, enlarged their operations, although not without a very serious outlay of the Society's funds.

JAMAICA.

In this Island, the Society has at present Six Missionaries, and Twenty-five Catechists or Schoolmasters. Considerable delays have been experienced in the erection of buildings at the different Stations; arising partly from the insufficiency of titles to land, partly from the difficulty of obtaining building materials, and from other causes.

The Rev. W. K. Betts, the Acting Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, nevertheless writes—

It will be gratifying to you to learn, that the Society's Schools are prospering. There are now Nineteen in operation, in this Island, containing upward of 2000 Scholars.

The following extracts from some of the Missionary communications will show, in some measure, the success of operations in this Island.

The Rev. H. L. Dixon, in charge of the Station of Appleton, writes, under date of August 10, 1837—

This morning, many persons were present, particularly elderly ones, whom I had never seen before. I find it a very useful, and even necessary practice, to go to some of the oldest, and those who are the least intelligent of my hearers, and recapitulate the points which have been touched upon in the discourse—to express them, as nearly as I can, in their own language; and to ask them questions, both to ascertain the degree of knowledge which they possess on religious subjects, to increase that knowledge, and to remove any errors into which they may have fallen. I have reason to believe that scarcely any sermon, however simple, is preached, but it is by many misunderstood; and in some instances, the erroneous notions entertained might be of a fatal nature. That so much labour is required on the part of the Missionary to make the hearer understand, must not, however, be a cause of complaint; for we are taught to expect that the effectual teaching of these people will require line upon line, precept upon precept; but it will be a subject causing the most heartfelt compassion for the state of our poor flocks, and a matter of anxious prayer to the God of all grace.

From the Station of Knockalva, the Rev. C. W. Winckler writes, September 30, 1837:—

The Ministerial work continues to increase. Divine Service on the Lord's Days is pretty well attended, as far as the heavy rains will permit. In the morning there are about 400 souls present. In the afternoon, I estimate the attendance at 200.

The most important work of this Station is, after the preaching of the Gospel, carrying on our Day Schools; and these, I am happy to say, are, so far as I can judge, in a prosperous state. Our Day School here at the Pen now numbers 108 children. The rainy season sometimes causes a comparatively scanty attendance; yet I am happy to say, that, during the quarter, the average attendance has not been lower than seventy.

Writing from the Station at Birnam Wood, Nov. 22, 1837, the Rev. J. F. Sessing remarks on the difficulty of labouring in this sphere—

It is not an easy thing to be a zealous Missionary in this country. I still hear the words, which were addressed to me when before your Meeting, and which you again repeat in your Letter—Feed my lambs; feed my sheep; but I was not then aware of the many difficulties that are to be removed, before we actually are enabled to feed these lambs. Though they are lambs, indeed, yet they are wild; .... and have been suffered to stray, and grow hardened in sin.

The Normal School, formerly under the charge of the Rev. C. L. F. Haensel, is at present under the care of Mr. E. Corner: the number of Scholars in it is seven. He writes concerning its state:—

Our daily course of study is much the same as usual; with the exception of having introduced Spelling, and the meanings of the words spelt, into the morning-tasks, instead of Geography: and for this purpose I use the Union Spelling-Book. Scripture Geography is that which forms the chief part of their geographical exercises. They are improving in their grammatical knowledge; but it is slowly. During the quarter, we have been reading the Book of Genesis in the morning; and in the evening have gone through the Second Epistle to the Corinthians, the Epistles to the Galatians and Ephesians; questioning and explaining as I go along. They seem to love to read their Bibles more than they did; and are more frequently found reading them, when alone.

A spirit of brotherly union and love has been promoted among the Missionary Labourers in this Island, by their holding an Annual Meeting at Kingston in the month of January. Mr. Betts, writing on Feb. 19, 1838, concerning the last of these Meetings, relates, that they assembled on five succeeding evenings; when the following subjects were successively considered:—1. The spirit of love, as described in 1 Cor. xiii. 2. The best method of conducting domestic worship; which led to much interesting discussion, tending to important practical results. 3. The reports from each of the Stations in the Island. 4. The best method of promoting Religion, and giving stability to the Missionary work.—Each Meeting was held with prayer. The fifth evening was set apart for special prayer; and the address of the late Rev. T. T. Biddulph* was read.—Mr. Betts adds: "I believe, when we separated, we were, though many in number, yet one in heart and Christian love."

TRINIDAD.

In this Island the Society has two Ordained Missionaries; and three Catechists from this country, besides other Assistants obtained in the Island. The population is, for the most part, Roman-Catholic; and sixteen Roman-Catholic Priests have arrived in the Island, as Missionaries.

The Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser, writing on June 15, 1837, thus describes the acceptableness of his labours among the Negroes:

We regularly visit Estates in the week, as well as on Lord's Days. Mr. Williams and myself have made arrangements to visit certain Estates on certain days. We call the people together, commence with prayer, and then address them; which altogether takes about an hour and a half. It is too soon to speak of fruit, because now it is the time of sowing; but yet, I hope, the harvest-time is not far distant. When I compare my first entry on the work with the present time, I can observe a difference: it chiefly consists in the anxiety of the people to be instructed, and in their desire to be followers of Christ. Sometimes, when you ask them, after having addressed them, "Now, my good people, you have heard this and that—tell me, will you still continue to be cursers, swearers, liars, disobedient to the commandments of God; or will you now return to God, and live a godly life?"—they will answer, deeply affected, with one voice, "Massa, we will go to Christ." Sometimes I tell them, that if they do not like my coming and preaching to them in the evening, they need only tell me, and I would stay away: they answer, "We are very glad that you come, and we will all come to hear you." Sometime ago I entered an Estate; when I was observed by some old Negro women, who more then ten times called out: "Thank God! Massa comes."

In describing his intercourse with the Roman Catholics, the Rev. A. E. Eckel thus relates his conversation with some of them:—

A Spaniard was greatly pleased with 'Wilberforce on Practical Christianity,' in Spanish: but, especially, the first two volumes of Milner's Church History attracted his attention; and he earnestly desired me to write to London for the other volumes, if they should be translated. Another, a French Creole, desired me to lend him some books of entertainment. I gave him, 'Fox's Book of Martyrs.' A few days afterward, another person told me that the man was greatly pleased with the work, and read it with great attention. The man himself soon came to me; saying, "Sir, this book has shaken my foundations: I cannot be a Roman Catholic any longer." Afterward, I told him not to read too much on controversy; but rather to read the Scriptures by themselves, beginning with Genesis; which would be more beneficial to his heart, and would give him the best instruction on the great plan of divine mercy. He did so: and finding that the Prophecies interested him, I gave him Newton and Keith on that subject; which he reads now very attentively. This man never thought seriously on Religion before.

* See Appendix I. to the Twentieth Report of the Church Missionary Society, for this Address.

DEMERARA.

The Committee have been much encouraged, in reference to this Mission, by the visit of the Rev. Leonard Strong to this country; by whose zealous exertions the Mission to the Indians has been from the first greatly promoted.

The Rev. J. H. Bernau, and the Rev. T. Youd, are labouring at Bartica Point. They both of them recommend occasional exploratory visits up the river; where, for some hundreds of miles, and up the creeks on either side, are many thinly-scattered companies of Indians. That these would gladly welcome Missionary labours, is apparent, both from the reception given to the Missionaries visiting them, and likewise from the messages of invitation which they send to the Missionaries themselves.

Mr. Youd is collecting materials for a Vocabulary of the four languages—Creole, Dutch, Carribeese, Akawi, and Macusie. Mr. Bernau considers it to be important that one language should be well fixed.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

THE affairs of this Mission continue manifestly to enjoy much of the divine blessing.

A fourth Church has been built during the past year. The Rev. D. T. Jones thus describes the opening of it—

Jan. 4, 1837—Rose at four o'clock in the morning; and started for the Grand Rapids, in very raw cold weather. I reached Mr. Cockran's, almost benumbed with cold, and my face frozen. With day-light came a heavy snow-drift, enough to dishearten man and beast. We left Mr. Cockran's at nine o'clock; and reached the Indian Settlement at eleven, and found the place crowded. I preached to them. After refreshment, we started on our return; and I reached home exhausted, about nine o'clock in the evening, after a ride of sixty miles, in dreadful weather.

The Rev. W. Cockran writes also as follows, on the same subject:—

When we turn our thoughts to the Indian Settlement, notwithstanding all our fears, we have abundant cause to return thanks to Almighty God. Here we have a comfortable Church, which will accommodate about 300 persons. Its white spire, shining through the woods, is a pleasing object. These people have been taken from the chains of Heathenism; and are now brought under the sound of the Gospel, to learn the value of their souls, the evil of sin, the power and love of Christ, and His willingness to save them.

Mr. Jones, in estimating the almost overwhelming extent of their charge, observes—

I think our Protestants amount to little short of 2000 people; and they are scattered over an extent of thirty-five miles of country, on each side of the river. There are four Churches, where Divine Service is held every Lord's Day; and we are thus prevented from affording the Sunday Schools the superintendence we used to do. We are now unable to visit our people in their houses, as we were wont; and the consequence is, that, in many places, weeds spring up, which used to be nipped in the bud. Mr. Cockran has told me, that rather than see the grass growing up to the doors and windows, he will strive to give a Service at the principal Church as often as he can; but I know well that he is overworked, as it is; and I am unwilling to throw an additional burden upon him, on account of my personal circumstances, and thus hasten the time of his inability to keep up his present duty.

On the state of Education, Mr. Cockran writes:—

When we reflect on the Schools, two of which are in the Rapids' Congregation, and two at the Indian Settlement, there we see upward of 200 children learning the first principles of the Christian Religion, from our Catechisms and the Scriptures. These would have grown up in the errors of Heathenism, had not Christianity laid hold of them, to lead them to the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus, and, through it, to the True God, the Author of every good and perfect gift. These are to become the salt of Christ—to season this Heathen land—to purge it from the guilt of Heathenism—and to consecrate it as a temple to the True God, when they have grown to manhood.

Mr. Cockran then records the zeal with which the people assemble in the Church for worship—

It is not to hear some new thing—it is not in a fine morning, when the weather is tempting, that they assemble; but, at every season of the year, they wade their way, through mire and rain, snow and cold, to the House of God.

And again, Mr. Cockran relates to the same effect—

Dec. 24, 1836—Five native women, after much conversation, were admitted into Church-fellowship. One of them had come a distance of ninety miles, to seek admission to the Church; and this at a season when the thermometer shows a degree of cold 25° below zero.

The plough, the spade, the sickle, and the mill, are very essential articles in the history of this Mission, as well as of others in rude uncultivated lands: and the watchful eye and help of the Missionary are as necessary in temporal as in spiritual things. Mr. Cockran relates, at the time of harvest—

Aug. 25—I was all day with the reapers. Some of them now reap as well as Europeans; but they do nothing, unless I go with them. As soon as I leave the field, they drop their sickles, and begin to play.

On occasion of a plentiful harvest, Mr. Jones thus describes the spirit of thankfulness that prevailed—

Oct. 7, 1835—According to public notice, given last Lord's Day, we observed this as a day of General Thanksgiving for the abundant Harvest given us; and I was happy to find the Churches crowded, and the stillness and solemnity of a Lord's Day reigning universaly throughout the Settlement.

The domestic circumstances of Mr. Jones having rendered it necessary for him to return to this country for a season, under the sanction of the Committee, they are anxious to place another Missionary in this Mission*.

CONCLUSION.

Your Committee, in concluding the Thirty-eighth Report, are desirous to draw the attention of the Members and Friends of the Society to a subject, the importance of which is daily felt with increasing weight—the value of sound Christian Education, in subserviency to the cause of Missions.

The Society has at present Missions in different parts of the world, marked by various degrees both of ignorance and knowledge. There is a kind of graduated scale, measuring from the Zoolu Tribes, who are at the lowest point, where even the Sovereign is only learning to spell; advancing further to the New Zealanders, who are just beginning to catch the most elementary ideas of the Scriptures; thence further tracing the plain, but useful studies of the Negro on either side of the Atlantic; then reaching further to the yet imperfect modern literature of the Eastern regions of the Mediterranean; thence rising higher still, to the varied acquirements of India; and, highest of all, to the cultivated and improving Native Society of Calcutta and other parts of Bengal.

That increase of knowledge, which characterizes these, and other parts of the world, has been gradually produced during many years past; but in later years its growth has been peculiarly rapid. There seems to be springing into existence a Public Mind, not of Britain only, but, in a certain sense, of the whole world: and this Mind has received an impulse, the result of which no human thought can calculate. Each succeeding year apparently outstrips some ten or twenty of former times; and even produces effects which, in former ages, whole centuries have failed to accomplish.

In surveying the different Missions of the Society, it is to India principally, as being highest in the scale of cultivation, that the thoughts of your Committee are directed, in these remarks. The lengthened period of peace enjoyed, generally speaking, by this Country and by her Indian Empire, has given scope for many useful Institutions to spring up and flourish and expand. Meanwhile, the facilities of intercourse furnished by Steam Navigation have drawn our Country so near to India, and are making the intermediate regions of Greece, Turkey and Egypt so familiar to the mind, that nothing now seems to be too difficult to be attempted.

It is felt, therefore, that in this advanced, and advancing, character of the world, former plans are inadequate to meet the wants of the age.

It is to be remembered, especially, that the Natives of India will henceforth be no more merely the recipients of knowledge, but the instruments of imparting it to their own countrymen, and to the surrounding nations.

The moment is pressing; because an Enemy is on the ground, offering the emancipation of the intellect on terms that would ruin the souls of men. Infidelity, with her high pretensions to Philosophy and Philanthropy, is prompt to occupy every opening field; assumes to measure correctly the faculties of man; casts the Bible on one side; promises liberty; flatters pride; and undertakes, by an apparatus of her own invention, to regenerate mankind.

The moment is also favourable; for, together with the extension of Protestant Episcopacy in the East, there is a marked increase of deep spiritual piety among eminent and influential persons, in those distant regions.

Your Committee would not, however, disguise from themselves, and from their friends, the real difficulty of the case:—it consists in the practical matter of fact, that it is hard to find Agents, either at home or abroad, competent, and at the same time willing, to bear their part in the great work which now lies before us.

The plea has gone throughout the length and breadth of the land: it has been urged again and again in our Universities. The spirit of enterprise, combined with the spirit of piety—the simple and affectionate heart, united with a strong cultivated understanding, and practical talents—has been asked for, again and again. Some individuals corresponding to this description have, indeed, engaged in the work; but the Committee are anxiously seeking for more.

They remember—and would reverentially bow to the divine appointment—that God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. Yet, in the selection of means for the accomplishment of great ends, man's bounden duty is, in subordination to the secret and sovereign purposes of God, to seek out, and to prepare, the best possible instruments.

And where should the Committee look for spirituality, talents, and enterprise, if not to the Members of our beloved Church? How should our Church be animated by the question, O thou that art named the house of Jacob! is the Spirit of the Lord straitened? Can we survey so many privileges yet preserved to us; can we suffer the purifying process, and see, in the midst of it, so many tokens of the Divine Presence and Love; and then doubt, whether the Lord of the Harvest be able and willing to send forth from our Communion more Labourers into His Harvest? But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob: thou hast been weary of me, O Israel! Prayer has not sufficiently abounded. Not to lose the golden opportunities, therefore, now presented to us, the Committee would earnestly press the duty of increasing prayer. It is in answer to prayer that the Eternal Spirit will vouchsafe to kindle fervent affections, to prompt wise plans, and to direct the wills of His faithful people with energy and success. The same gracious Spirit will also bless the humblest efforts, and the smallest offering, if presented in the name of the Redeemer. And the same Spirit of Christ will also pour forth gracious influences upon all the nations of the earth, so that the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water. Him therefore let us serve, and Him let us magnify. To Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church, by Jesus Christ, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

APPENDIX I.

(See Page 39.)

LETTER TO THE SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS, ON THE QUALIFICATIONS OF CANDIDATES.

DEAR SIR,

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society have repeatedly and earnestly expressed their need of Missionary Labourers; but never has the urgency of the case been so great as at present.

Openings for enlarged exertion are now presented, through the good Providence of God, in every part of the Missionary field. The cry from every band of Labourers already engaged in the work, is, "Send us more men!" The assigning of Stations to Missionaries has become a difficult, and even painful task; because, on such occasions, the Committee have to decide amidst conflicting claims: and are obliged to disappoint the hopes of many Stations, while they barely satisfy the demands of a few.

The Committee have, therefore, determined to bring this subject under the solemn consideration of all who have the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom at heart; and earnestly to invite their friends throughout the country to seek out suitable persons, and to encourage such as are willing to offer themselves for Missionary employment.

Yet, while the Committee are constrained to make this urgent appeal, they feel more deeply than ever the vast importance of sending out men endued with all the qualifications required for their high and arduous undertaking. The experience of thirty-six years—more than the average duration of a generation of men—has furnished to the Society accumulated proof of the fact, that there are certain requisites, in addition to piety, for the lack of which even the most zealous Missionaries may fail of success.

This conviction has led the Committee to exercise much caution in the reception of Missionary Candidates; and experience increasingly confirms them in the persuasion, that this caution has not been carried too far.

The Committee have reason, however, to fear that some of their friends have been disappointed, when the exercise of such caution has led the Committee to decline the offer of Candidates who have appeared before them with very favourable recommendations; and they apprehend, that, in some quarters, an erroneous impression has been created, as though the Committee were not so desirous, as they are, of obtaining an accession of Labourers.

Under these circumstances, the Committee judge it expedient to accompany their present appeal with a statement of the qualifications which experience has shown to be peculiarly requisite in Missionary Candidates. They trust, that by this means their friends will be enabled to ascertain, with greater accuracy, the probable suitableness of the persons whom they may be inclined to recommend: so that, on the one hand, the supply of hopeful Candidates may be increased, and, on the other, the disappointment, to all parties, of unsuccessful applications may be in a great measure avoided.

It is necessary to premise, that the following statement has a primary reference to the case of Young Men to be admitted into the Society's Institution at Islington, to be trained by a course of study, of one, two, or three years, for Missionary employment.

If, therefore, some of the particulars may seem to present a moderate standard, it must not be inferred that the Committee are not most anxious to obtain Labourers furnished with superior qualifications. They feel assured that the Missionary service is worthy of the highest literary attainments which can be dedicated to it, and that it will afford the most ample scope for their exercise. They would rejoice at receiving offers from suitable persons already in Holy Orders, or prepared for them by a complete education. A few such offers the Committee have at various times received, and most gladly accepted. And why should not others be made? Is the Missionary Office esteemed less honourable — less useful — less blessed — than the Ministry in our own Country? Is the example of the Apostles, and of our Blessed Saviour Himself, less allied to the labours of a Missionary than to those of a settled Minister in a Christian Country? May God put it into the hearts of many, who are fully qualified for the work, to consecrate themselves to the Missionary service!

But past experience compels the Committee to rest their chief hope of a supply of Labourers, for the present at least, upon the system of training and educating Young Men at the Institution at Islington.

They proceed, therefore, to direct the attention of their friends to the following essential requisites in a Missionary Candidate:—

I.—SOUND AND INTELLIGENT PIETY.

The first requisite, beyond all question, that the Committee are bound to look for in a Missionary Candidate, is piety. But they entreat their friends not to be satisfied with an untried piety. When it has had time to prove its truth and fixedness; when it has shown itself to be sober, judicious, and gentle, though strongly developed, resolute, and ardent; then let the individual, whose character is attested by these manifest fruits of the Spirit, be proposed to them.

It is also requisite that a candidate should be so far conversant with the Divine Word, as to be capable of distinguishing truth from error, on the fundamental points of Christian doctrine. If a person, after long apparent seriousness in Religion, is yet very confused in his notions on the chief articles of a Christian's faith, and but little read in the Scriptures, it would seem that he labours under some defect, either moral or intellectual, that renders him unfit to become a Teacher.

II.—ENLIGHTENED ATTACHMENT TO THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

A decided and intelligent attachment to the Church of England is of essential importance. It is necessary that a candidate should have studied, in some measure, the discipline as well as the doctrines of our venerable Establishment; and that he should be attached to it from the conviction of his judgment. If perplexity and doubts upon such points should arise after he has entered the Institution, it is obvious that they will involve himself and others in many difficulties. But should they occur after he has gone forth upon foreign service, the evil will be greatly aggravated. For it must be remembered, that questions which involve Ecclesiastical principles are peculiarly liable to occur in the career of a Missionary, while he may be placed at a distance from the advice and guidance of any Ecclesiastical superior.

III.—KNOWLEDGE OF MISSIONARY WORK; AND RIGHT MOTIVES FOR WISHING TO ENGAGE IN IT.

Let it be ascertained by the friends who recommend a candidate for Missionary employment, that he knows what it is that he solicits; that he has acquainted himself with the nature of the calling; that he is deeply impressed with its vast importance, and with the demand of Christian devotedness which it makes on those who embrace it; and that he has fairly looked at the peculiar trials and difficulties with which Missionary labours are encompassed. It is not unusual for those who declare, offhand, that they have pondered all these matters, to be found, on stricter inquiry, very little alive to the real character of the undertaking, and to the specific obligations which it involves. Attention is also earnestly invited to the motives by which the candidate may be actuated. It would be an erroneous candour, that would refuse to notice the indications of some oblique motive — not obvious, perhaps, to the party himself — which has, nevertheless, had more or less to do in producing or in fixing his Missionary inclinations. Is there no reason to suspect disgust of his present occupation, arising from failure or disappointment? Has he evinced ability in his secular calling; or has he turned out awkward and incompetent? Is he impatient of control; of questionable industry and perseverance? or does he seem to be of a vagrant mind, quickly tiring of his task, catching eagerly at new occupations, and enamoured, it may be, of any thing like enterprise? May his Missionary zeal have been stimulated by a desire to raise himself in the world? and is he anxious to marry, and not in circumstances to take that step? On these, and many other such points, it is highly expedient, for those who recommend a candidate, to make accurate inquiries; and to exercise their judgment, with prayer and charity, yet with firmness and wisdom.

On one point, connected with this head of inquiry, the Committee are particularly anxious to have their views understood. An engagement to marry must always, or almost always, make against the acceptance of a candidate for admission into the Institution. Many weighty objections to the reception of persons under such engagements into a Seminary of Education will readily occur to reflecting minds. One objection the Committee will particularize, as of peculiar force in the case of uneducated candidates. It is manifest, that the female to whom such a candidate may be contracted will generally be on the same level as that which he occupied at the commencement of his studies in the Institution; and consequently, since her education will not be going forward, she will have become an unsuitable companion for him after he has enjoyed the benefit of some years' training in the Institution; and she may thus prove an insufficient help, if not a positive hindrance to him, in his mission.

IV.—GOOD NATURAL CAPACITY AND TEMPER.

A good natural capacity for intellectual pursuits is a most desirable qualification. A person of moderate abilities, who might be useful as a Teacher at home, may be discouraged, and become inefficient abroad, through the want of sufficient power of mind, not only for acquiring languages, but for the still more difficult work of adapting his instruction to the new and ever-varying circumstances of the Missionary warfare.

A firm courageous mind is also a most important qualification. From men deficient in moral courage, no great achievements can be expected in an enterprise which especially demands the union of boldness and fortitude, with discretion. They are appalled at the very preparations necessary for the Missionary life: they drag through it feebly, and with indifferent success; and if they enter the field, it is with so much timidity, and such a proneness to take alarm, that harm, rather than good, is the result of their languid and desultory efforts.

There are also some faults of temper which constitute solid objections to a candidate, that can best be detected by those among whom he has grown up and received his early education. A sullen temper, an irritable temper, an obstinate temper, a gloomy temper, if not habitually controlled and corrected by Christian principle, must greatly impair the efficiency of a Missionary, and embarrass his connexion with Fellow-labourers abroad, and with the Conductors of the Society at home.

It should especially be ascertained, that self-indulgence is not the besetting sin of a man recommended for a Missionary. It would be wrong to place reliance on a Labourer who is not inured to be temperate in all things, but loves to please himself, and is easily disconcerted by privations and hardships.

V.—THE RUDIMENTS OF LEARNING.

It is essential that a candidate should possess some of the rudiments of learning. If he be ignorant of the elements of Latin, he should at least have shown himself capable of mastering Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, &c. with reasonable ease. There should be some evidence afforded that the mind is strong enough to support with cheerfulness the literary training which most of the Students have to undergo, before they can enter on their spheres of foreign labour; a point which can hardly be determined, till a person has made the experiment.

VI.—HEALTH.

A sound bodily constitution and good general health are essential qualifications for the active and laborious duties of the Christian Missionary. To these points, therefore, the attention of friends should be invariably directed, and no candidate recommended whose fitness in these respects has not been satisfactorily ascertained.

These are the chief points to which the Committee are solicitous that attention should be directed, in judging of the suitableness of Missionary Candidates.

The Committee would now respectfully repeat their call upon their kind and zealous friends throughout the country, to search for suitable persons—men who come up to the standard here delineated. Such persons are not confined to any one rank of society; but the Committee would suggest that they are most likely to be met with in those Middle Ranks from which the liberal professions are mainly supplied. Yet it is found, by experience, that in those ranks young men are generally more reluctant to propose themselves, than in the lower grades of society. Suitable persons of this class, therefore, especially need to be sought out—to have the subject proposed to their attention—and to be encouraged to offer their services.

The Committee have only further to suggest to their friends the expediency of trying and proving the qualifications of a person, whom they may be inclined to recommend as a candidate. There are various measures which friends residing on the spot may adopt for this purpose, with the greatest advantage. They may make trial of the candidate's ability and alertness, of his judiciousness and temper, as a Teacher in Schools, and as a District Visitor. The trouble of taking—the Committee might also say, of inventing—means for proving the qualifications of candidates may be, in some instances, great; but assuredly it will not be grudged, when the good that will accrue from it is considered.

In conclusion, the Committee would entreat their friends to unite with the Conductors of the Society's affairs in frequent and fervent prayer to the Great Searcher of hearts, whose sole prerogative it is to send forth Spiritual Labourers into the harvest of the world. He can indeed, at His pleasure, use even the weakest Instruments: yea, things which are not hath He chosen to bring to nought things that are. Yet, in the administration of His Church, He has appointed, that faithful men, able to teach others, should be sought out, and thoroughly instructed and furnished to every good work. Let us therefore look upward for the Spirit of Wisdom to guide us in our choice of men—to assist them in their preparatory studies—and so to bless their labours, when they go forth to their work, that they may become effectual instruments of making known to others THE GLORIOUS GOSPEL OF THE BLESSED GOD.

Commending this important subject to your prayers and careful consideration, we remain, Dear Sir, very truly yours,

WILLIAM JOWETT, } Secretaries.

FOURTH REPORT OF THE MISSION TO THE ABORIGINES AT WELLINGTON VALLEY,

FOR THE YEAR 1836:

MADE TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

On a review of the Missionary operations at this place, there are not wanting causes of gratitude to Almighty God: because, in the face of much opposition—of many prejudices—of an almost unbroken chain of vicious examples—and of a deplorable intimacy existing, on all hands, between European men and Aboriginal females—there is reason to believe that both moral and spiritual benefit have been derived by the Natives from Missionary exertions.

The central position of the Government grant or location at Wellington Valley renders it an important Station for Missionary labours among the surrounding tribes; many of whom frequently visit the place, and thus become acquainted with the truths of the Gospel.

The Vocabulary in the native language has been again revised, and considerably enlarged. The Gospel of St. Matthew, and almost the whole of the Morning and Evening Services of our Church, have been translated into the language of the Aborigines; and in this language, Divine Service is performed every Sunday. The Missionaries have had under their care and instruction, at different times, more than 100 Natives; besides occasional visitors, and others with whom they have conversed when on their journeys into the interior.

No journeys have been undertaken among the distant tribes since the beginning of this year; because, in the early part of the year, Mrs. Handt, being in a state of ill health, required every kind attention from her husband, the Rev. J. C. S. Handt: and, in the month of April, they were both recommended to proceed on a visit to Sydney, for Mrs. Handt's benefit: since which period, the Rev. W. and Mrs. Watson have been alone in the work.

At one time, during the present year, more than 200 Natives visited the Missionary Station: and very frequently there has been a number of not less than forty to sixty under religious instruction. There are intimately attached to the Mission Establishment, six elderly Natives, five young men, eight boys, and eight girls. Of these, twelve regularly sleep in the Mission House—the others, occasionally.

In every point of view, the Aborigines who are in connexion with the Mission are making a gradual, though slow, advancement in civilization, and in Christian knowledge.

In the seed-time, Natives attended at the plough daily for upward of a month: and in the harvest, thirteen Natives were employed in reaping.

The children, in general, improve as much as those of European parents, in all ordinary branches of education—reading, writing, sewing, and religious knowledge. Of two young females who were seduced from the Mission House, one, in three months only, had learned to read in the Testament and in the Prayer-Book. Several of the young men appear to be weary of the bush life, and manifest a desire to possess property of their own; but they are afraid that other Natives would soon dispossess them of what they might acquire.

They likewise express their disapprobation of polygamy; and of the manner in which the elder Natives dispose of their wives and their female children.

The Missionaries, at the commencement of their labours, found the Natives destitute of any knowledge of the True God, and of the way of salvation by faith in the atonement of His only Son Jesus Christ: they knew not one letter of the Alphabet: they had no Christian Sabbath—no Gospel Ordinances: —they had no knowledge of the depravity of their hearts, and were apparently unconscious of the sinfulness of their lives. But now, many of them believe in God, the Creator of the World, and in Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind. Several have also learned to read the Holy Scriptures; to regard the Sabbath as a day of holy rest; to attend the Ordinances of Divine Worship; and to present their morning and evening supplications and praises to the God of Providence and Grace.

Several, under the preaching of the Gospel and religious instruction, have been made acquainted with their inward depravity, and the sinfulness of their lives; and have also been led to express their desires after holiness and salvation.

One boy ten years of age, and two children, who had been previously baptized, have died in the Mission House. The former afforded sufficient evidence that he had received the grace of God;—and not in vain: he acknowledged the sinfulness of his heart and life, and believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. He was delivered from that dread of death, to which the Aborigines are peculiarly subject. By divine grace, he was enabled to say, "I do not want to get better: I want to die and to go to Jesus Christ. God has been very good to me."

☞ It is requested that Committees of Associations will, when it can be conveniently done, close their respective Accounts on the 31*st of December; and transmit the List of Contributors, with a copy of the* BALANCE SHEET, to the Society's Office, addressed to the Secretaries, not later than the end of January.

ASSOCIATIONS IN AND NEAR LONDON.

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus, necessarily, vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and 31st March in each year, and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Guineas and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
